

SHALL JAPAN FIGHT AMERICA?

Question to Be Discussed at Meeting at Tokio Tonight

Students' Societies of Three of Tokio's Private Universities to Attend

TOKIO, Nov. 16.—(By Associated Press)—The students' societies of three of Tokio's private universities, have organized a meeting to be held tonight to discuss the question "Shall Japan Fight America?" The police have twice summoned committeemen from the students and tried unsuccessfully to persuade them to change the subject. The present arrangements are that the meeting will be held, with many student orators participating. Applications to speak have been received from labor and socialist representatives and members of patriotic societies.

Forecasts of the probable character of the utterances indicate that the majority of the majority of the orators are expected to take a bellicose view.

The anti-ministerial press today prints attacks upon Premier Hara's recent speech on the international situation. The Yomiuri Shinbun declares the premier's statement that the Americans never violated Japan's rights to be untrue.

The Kokumin Shinbun questions the premier's statement that anti-Japanese feeling is confined to California. It asserts that it is becoming nation-wide, the causes being the American supposition that Japan is an "Eastern Germany" and the misunderstanding of her policy towards Shantung, Korea and Siberia.

RED CROSS CAMPAIGN

Teams Slow in Making Reports But Big Rush Expected Later On

There is still another week and a half before the Red Cross membership drive is brought to a close and to this fact the local directors of the drive point in assigning a reason for the slowness of teams making reports. Enthusiasm in the drive has not died down, however, because it is believed that the various teams of the city have signed up many members and have not made official reports to Red Cross headquarters at 51 Merrimack street. The first returns made by any of the teams were completed late yesterday afternoon, but they showed that many instances all the members were not ready to send in reports. The report mentioned showed that 907 memberships had been already received with Team C, captained by Henry H. Harris, having 453 memberships, the largest total. From other sources in the city comes the report that several business offices have been signed up 100 per cent strong and Superintendent Wiles of the police department stated that the Chinese of the city have also signed up 100 per cent.

The first town to report is Reading. Last Sunday afternoon for a period of two hours an intensive campaign was carried on there with the result that over 1000 members were obtained. Two districts of the town were canvassed. Dr. M. E. Brande is chairman of the Reading committee and his method of covering Reading was to divide it into sections with a team for each section. Other towns, with the exception possibly of Stoneham, are not divided into such districts, and that is said to be the reason for slow reports.

The method used in the Reading drive was to secure a large number of automobiles for the canvassers who visited each house in their district. The local committees are planning a house to house canvass in the city, but such a proposition takes time. Plans are also under way for the establishment of membership booths in different department stores of the city and discussion of this matter was to be taken up some time today or this evening. Another reason for slowness in reporting is the lack of work in the mills in the city. All those who possibly can are urged to visit Red Cross headquarters at 51 Merrimack street where membership subscriptions will be received and receipts given. Supplies for team captains or members may be obtained at headquarters. The unofficial report which gives approximately the memberships received up to late yesterday afternoon is as follows:

Team A—Capt. Frank F. Proctor...	11
Team B—Capt. Geo. C. Fairburn...	112
Team C—Capt. Geo. C. Wagner...	453
Team D—Capt. Arthur A. Wright...	62
Team E—Capt. George H. Runnels...	81
Team F—Capt. W. W. Burrell...	44
Team G—Capt. Henry H. Harris...	453
Team H—Capt. Harry W. Hall...	9
Team I—Capt. Royal P. White...	104
General Headquarters...	104

Total 907

Other reports were not expected until late this afternoon. The police and fire departments, which have always been among the first in Red Cross drives, are expected to report soon.

LABOR LEADERS MEET HOOVER

Questions of Industrial Peace and Related Problems Discussed

Hooover Made Trip From San Francisco to Washington for Conference

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—Questions of industrial peace and related problems, were discussed today at a conference between leaders of organized labor and Herbert Hoover.

Coming to the conference of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor at the request of President Gompers, Mr. Hoover said he had made the trip from San Francisco to discuss "the whole industrial and employment situation."

CHARGES WITHDRAWN

American Legion Commander Withdraws Charges Against Lowell Members

Major James D. Duane, state commander of the American Legion, has just written John J. Walsh of Lowell, local member of the state committee of the legion, withdrawing certain charges given by Major Duane to the press the day before election, that 12 members of the Lowell post had violated the constitution of the legion by issuing over their signatures an endorsement of the candidacy of Congressman John Jacob Rogers. Major Duane expressly withdraws his previous statement that the men in question "were guilty of a violation of our constitution," and adds: "I do not want the contents of my letter to be construed as a reflection" on anyone concerned in the affair.

ARE SERIOUSLY INJURED

Men Returning From Lowell Go Over Bridge in Auto at Reading

READING, Nov. 16.—At 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon a large touring car crashed through the wooden railing of the Lowell street bridge over the Boston & Maine railroad and hurtled 30 feet with its two occupants to the tracks below. Vernon Jones of 351 Highland avenue, Somerville, and Arthur Conner of 440 Dexter street, Waterbury, who were in the car, are in the Massachusetts General hospital, seriously injured. The automobile landed squarely in the path of an out-bound train, causing a crashing collision with only 20 seconds. The engineer of the train saw the car fall to the tracks and stopped his locomotive only a yard from the wrecked car. The two men were returning from Lowell. There is a sharp curve, a right angle, at the beginning of the bridge and the car did not make the turn soon enough.

A Boston-bound train was stopped, the two men were put in the baggage car on stretchers and an ambulance took them from the terminal to the hospital.

FOUL PLAY SUSPECTED

Autopsy Today on Body of Man Found in Doorway

Yesterday

An autopsy was performed today by Medical Examiner T. R. Smith, assisted by Doctors William F. Ryan and James P. Loughran, on the body of John J. Cahill, who was found in a pool of blood in a doorway in Central street early yesterday morning. The result of the autopsy was a report to the effect that death was due to a fracture of the skull.

The doctors did not find any traces of alcohol in his system, a fact that tends to disprove the theory that death was due to a fall. The report of the autopsy, submitted to the chief of police by the medical examiner, rather opens the way for suspicion of foul play and the investigation is to be continued. It has been suggested that the man might have been hit by an automobile and put in the doorway, out of sight. The body was first discovered by a milkman who notified a policeman. The police ambulance was summoned and the man was sent to the hospital, but was found to be dead upon arrival of the ambulance there. The doctors believe that the man was dead when found by the milkman. He carried a gold watch and had about $70 in his pockets, a fact, the police say, that eliminates the theory of robbery. The case is a mysterious one and will be thoroughly investigated.

TO GET U. S. TO JOIN LEAGUE

So. American Delegates Urge League to do all it Can to Make U. S. Member Nation

All Danger of Encroachment of League on Monroe Doctrine Averted

GENEVA, Nov. 16.—(By Associated Press)—All danger that the assembly of the League of Nations may encroach upon the Monroe Doctrine by considering American questions in the absence of the United States has been averted by the withdrawal of a request by Bolivia and Peru for revision of treaties with Chile.

It is not expected that any other American questions with dangerous possibilities will come before the present session of the assembly.

Six committees, charged with dealing with all questions on the agenda, began work today. Each committee has 11 members, all the nations having delegates at the meeting here being represented.

South American delegates have agreed the League of Nations should do all it can to get the United States to become a member nation.

South American delegates have endorsed the League of Nations should do all it can to get the United States to become a member nation.

Argentina is regarded as a strong candidate for representation on the council of the league, the four elective members of which will be chosen by the assembly after receiving the report of the committee on general organization.

The report of the council on the work that had been done since the league was organized, was taken up by the delegates after some preliminary matters had been disposed of, chiefly committee of organization of the league.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—(By Associated Press)—Consideration of the Tacna-Arica dispute among Chile, Peru and Bolivia by the League of Nations would not be regarded by the American government as an encroachment of the league on the Monroe Doctrine, according to state department officials.

The administration's attitude with respect to the Monroe Doctrine has been based upon the literal interpretation providing against any territorial aggression in South America.

CITY PRIMARIES

Polls Will Be Open From Noon to 9 P. M.

The polls will be open from 12 noon to 9 p. m. on city primaries, next Tuesday, Nov. 23. It was voted by the election commission today.

This is in accordance with the custom of past years. The municipal council has received a petition from Fred G. Leary, one of the candidates for alderman, asking that the polls be kept open from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m., as on state election day this year, but upon investigation it is found that the city charter prevents such extension of the hours.

Section 7 of the charter provides that "at every preliminary election the polls shall be opened at twelve o'clock and shall not be closed before eight o'clock in the evening."

Thus, it is possible to extend the hour of closing the polls—and this has already been done—but they must not be opened before noon, if the charter is to be lived up to.

WRANGLER AND SOLDIERS FLEE

Left Sebastopol When Army Had Been Virtually Wiped Out by Soviets

Three U. S. Destroyers Arrive at Constantinople With Refugees

LONDON, Nov. 16.—General Baron Wrangel, head of the South Russian government, whose army has been virtually wiped out by the Bolshevik offensive in Crimea, left Sebastopol on a Russian cruiser filled with soldiers, says a Constantinople despatch to the Exchange Telegraph company. The cruiser was accompanied by three transports carrying 20,000 troops and another carrying wounded men, the fleet sailing for an unknown port.

Russian soviet forces had not reached Sebastopol before the city was evacuated. It is said. The United States destroyers Humphreys, Whipple and Edwards, arrived at Constantinople with refugees yesterday.

Although the admiralty has issued no orders to the commanders of the British warships in the Black sea, except carefully to observe strict neutrality, it was officially stated today that British ships would assist in rescuing non-combatants if they were really in danger.

The question of rescue work is left to the discretion of the officers on the spot.

No troops will be transported under any circumstances, it was added.

Views of French Government

PARIS, Nov. 16.—The defeat of Gen. Wrangel, whose South Russian government had been recognized by France, does not mean that France is ready to consider recognition of the Russian soviet government, it is said at the foreign office.

The French government is pessimistic regarding any further military movements in Russia at present, and seeing where any basis can be found for reorganization of the fruitless effort against the Moscow government made by General Wrangel from the Crimea.

General Wrangel himself, the foreign office advises said, had either arrived at Constantinople on board the Russian cruiser Korniloff or was on the way to that city.

Threaten Repatrials

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 16.—(By Associated Press)—The French admiral of the Black sea forces sent a wireless to the Bolsheviks after the evacuation of Sebastopol by General Wrangel's troops threatening repatrials if the town were looted or the population molested.

A panic is reported to have occurred at Tatta during the evacuation and remarkable scenes were witnessed in Sebastopol and Feodosia.

MAYOR DISCUSSES CITY FINANCES

"Every department must scrape and economize to the utmost for the rest of the year. If that is done there is no reason why we cannot reach the end of the year in good financial condition," said Mayor Perry D. Thompson in discussing city finances this morning with particular reference to the possible necessity of further appropriations for a number of departments.

"I am economizing in the health department, for instance," continued the mayor. "Usually, when the cold weather comes on, additional help is hired but I have not done so yet. If the other departments will lighten up to the limit, there should be no necessity for extensive supplementary appropriations."

Asked if he had heard any talk of requests for salary increases from heads of the various departments this year, the mayor said that he had not, although he had no grounds for saying that there would be no such requests.

"I don't believe there will be salary increases granted this December, as there were last year," he stated. "Prices are beginning to drop in a good many commodities and I think practically every department head in city hall was granted an increase last year. The general economic situation isn't lending at present toward increased salaries, but rather toward a decline in the cost of living. Perhaps this is not very perceptible at present, but I believe that most people will agree that the peak has been reached and that food and clothing are not getting any higher."

RHALLIS TO FORM NEW MINISTRY

Premier Venizelos and all But Two of His Ministers Defeated

Gounaris Forces Surprised at Magnitude of Victory—Result Shock to Allies

ATHENS, Nov. 16.—Premier Venizelos' cabinet resigned early today, and Admiral Kondouriotis, the regent of Greece, has sent for Demetrios Rhallis, to whom it is expected, will be entrusted the formation of a new ministry.

The complete victory of the opposition seemed almost certain last night, although final results were still lacking. Even leaders of the elements opposed to Premier Venizelos in the elections held on Sunday, were surprised by the showing their candidates had made in Macedonia and Attica.

It is said Mr. Venizelos will leave the country and he has advised liberals to abide by the verdict of the people.

Demetrios Gounaris, leader of the opposition, has declared the foreign policy of Greece will not be changed.

Latest returns from the election gave the supporters of Venizelos 118 deputies against 250 royalists. Venizelos and all but two of his ministers were beaten. None of the Venizelos candidates was elected in Greece and Macedonia, with the exception of Epirus and the Aegean islands.

Two persons were killed by shots fired from houses facing the foreign office yesterday. It was declared that reactionary elements were responsible for the firing. Armed police rushed to the scene and a lively fusillade resulted.

Fear Panic in Athens

LONDON, Nov. 16.—George Rhallis, former Greek premier and minister of finance, has been asked by the regent to form a cabinet succeeding that of Eleftherios Venizelos, says a Reuters' despatch from Paris. Rhallis is 50 years old and his last public office was that of minister of finance in the Zaimis cabinet in 1916.

The house at Athens has been closed because of the fear of a panic, it is said.

Great Shock to Allies

PARIS, Nov. 16.—With the defeat of Premier Venizelos regarded by the French foreign office as certain, it is said the position of France and Great Britain with regard to former King Constantine is clearly against his return and that both powers are determined to do everything possible to prevent it.

Great Britain and France, it is indicated, will act together, but will await some indication of Constantine's intention to return. "Should that be manifested they will then do whatever may be necessary."

It was declared today at the foreign office that France would take all possible steps to keep the ex-king off the throne.

"The defeat of Premier Venizelos" a foreign office statement said, "may be termed a display of gross ingratitude by the Greeks for the man who brought the country to the allies' side and greatly increased its size, power and influence, and this view is shared by the allies. It was a great shock to the allies."

May Proclaim Martial Law

ATHENS, Nov. 15, 10 P. M.—(By Associated Press)—Troops fired from a number of points on several occasions today to disperse after-election trouble-makers. Tonight there are fears of further trouble which may lead to martial law, and there is said to be danger that the army may get out of hand.

The stores, bank and theatres were closed today, and soldiers patrolled the streets. Tonight the population was keeping close, not taking the risk of leaving their homes.

The directors began with a parade of opposition adherents to attack the Liberal club. Troops stationed within the club quarters fired upon the marchers.

The military later attacked the opposition headquarters from which a few shots came. For two hours the headquarters were besieged and bombarded by the troops. A number of by-standers were wounded.

Troops are guarding the public places and the homes of the leaders of both sides.

W. U. BREAKS WITH STATE DEPT.

Controversy Ends With Telegraph Company Refusing to Accept Messages

Trouble Started Over Application for Permit to Land Cable at Miami

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (by Associated Press)—The long standing controversy between the state department and the Western Union Telegraph Co. has reached the stage of an open break, the company refusing to handle any further cable messages for the department, except upon prepayment of tolls.

The company's order was issued on Nov. 16, it was said today at the department, and ostensibly was to apply to all departments of the government. It was understood, however, that messages sent by other departments had been excepted informally from the ruling.

The Western Union Co. is stated to have based its action on the delay by the department in making payments on cable messages previously handled. Department officials asserted, today, however, that it was their opinion a step in retaliation for the failure of the department to permit the landing of a cable at Miami, Fla., connecting at Barbados with a British cable from South America.

CITY COUNCIL MEETING

Bids to Be Called for in Connection With Firehouse in Highlands

A step further in the establishment of a new firehouse in the Highlands district to replace the Westford street house which was sold last August was taken by the municipal council this morning when it voted to authorize Commissioner Geo. E. Marchand, of the public property department, and Commissioner John F. Salmon, of the department of water works and fire protection to call for bids for the preparing of plans and specifications for the new structure.

The commissioners announced after the meeting.

CENTRAL BRIDGE

Work On Repairs to Begin in Day or Two

Although the municipal council at its meeting this morning failed to take action relative to the repair of the Central bridge, which has been closed to electric cars and other heavy traffic since last Thursday, actual work on putting the structure in shape for such traffic during the winter months will in all probability begin within a day or two.

Mayor Perry D. Thompson, Commissioner Dennis A. Murphy, of the highways department, and City Engineer Stephen Kearney were waiting today for the appearance of F. B. Walker, engineer of the ways and maintenance department of the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway company, to approve the plan of temporary repair which had been outlined by local city and railway officials at a conference yesterday afternoon. He was expected from Fall River late this afternoon and as soon as his O. K. is given to the plans, work will begin.

When asked today where the money is coming from to meet the expense of repairing the bridge, Mayor Thompson said that it would have to be taken from the maintenance appropriation of the street department. Temporary repairs, as planned at the present time, will not cost more than $10,000, he believes.

There is now left about $25,000 of the maintenance appropriation in Mr. Murphy's department and it is probable that if $10,000 were taken from that amount for the present emergency, the commissioner would immediately ask the council for more funds. In fact, when questioned as to his department's financial situation he said that the bridge situation had become known, Mr. Murphy readily admitted that he would have to have more money to complete the year's work.

In the meantime, residents of Centralville, Dracut and neighboring sections on the northern side of the river are being seriously inconvenienced by the suspension of traffic over the bridge. Aggravating the situation has been the exceptionally sharp weather of the past few days and standing at the end of the bridge waiting for out-time with hundreds of persons. Protest have been pouring into city hall hourly and the city officials cannot act any too quickly for Centralvillians.

TELLS TALE OF SPIRITUAL LOVE

Miss Mabel E. Puffer Gives Account of Relations With Former Suitor

Says She Went to Concord With "McKee in Likeness of Hazzard"

Over and over again, Miss Mabel Emmeline Puffer, of Ayer, as a witness in the superior court today, referred to the former suitor for her hand, with whom she went to Concord, N. H., last June, for the purpose of contracting a marriage, as "Charles McKee in the likeness of Arthur Garfield Hazzard." There were references during Miss Puffer's testimony to "spiritual love," "spiritual marriage" and "spiritual money." She said that she had given money to McKee, "in the likeness of Hazzard" to demonstrate love. She asserted Hazzard had proposed marriage to her saying, "now you have got your man."

The testimony was given during the progress of the suit brought in behalf of Miss Puffer, now a patient in the Worcester State hospital for the insane, to recover money and property alleged to have been transferred to Hazzard, and by him partially transferred to other persons. W. H. Lewis, of Boston, and Cornelius J. O'Neill, of Lowell, attorneys, are among the defendants named in the case.

Miss Puffer was on the stand for the whole of the morning session of the court.

MRS. BURKE CALLED

Testifies in Behalf of Husband, Accused of Murder of Bartley

SKOWHEGAN, Me., Nov. 16.—Mrs. Florence W. Burke today corroborated important parts of the testimony of her husband, John W. Burke, at his second trial for the murder of Nelson W. Bartley, particularly as to the genuineness of the notes he held. She was not cross-examined.

Mrs. Burke testified that she will remain in her home on the night of May 11, 1918, after signing by Bartley of two notes for $200 and a receipt for $700, after fixing her name as a witness to the three papers. She said she showed them to Leo Jackson, the latter part of that month or the first of June. The state contends Bartley's signature was forged.

She testified that on the night of Oct. 15, 1918, when Bartley was killed, she returned to her home in Jackson from a motion picture show and found her husband with Dr. John M. Boothby and others in the kitchen. He had been shot through the leg. She stated that at no time during the night did she leave the bed which they both occupied.

Dr. Lincoln W. White of Boston, called by the defense as an expert on the stomach, testified that he considered it impossible in a case similar to Bartley's, where the contents of the stomach were not removed and examined until five or six days after death, to determine within four hours the work was merely to find out if he had eaten food. Last meal had been eaten before death, and it was not called for until four days later.

Dr. Forrest C. Tyson, superintendent of the Augusta state hospital, followed Dr. White on the stand.

WORK PROGRESSING ON NEW HIGH SCHOOL

About 20 men are employed on the erection of the new high school building in Kirk street and the work is progressing rapidly. The progress of the work has reached to some extent the second story. Some time ago some time ago by delays in the shipments of steel, but for the past few weeks shipments have been about normal and the big steel girders are being put in place practically as fast as they arrive.

A ready portion of the steel for the third story has been put in place, while the brick work has reached the top of the second story. Carpenters are now laying the temporary floor on the second story and with good weather conditions prevailing, General Contractor Daniel Walker expects that within a short time the third story of the building, that is the exterior, will be completed. The building when finished will have four stories.

Mr. Walker is not experiencing any trouble in securing the necessary help as he receives many applications for work. The job will be rushed along until extreme cold weather sets in and then activities may be shifted to the interior of the building.

REGISTRATION FOR CITY PRIMARIES

The election commissioners wound up their pre-primaries registration sessions yesterday with a heavy enrollment of new voters. A total of 357 names were added to the check list, 211 of them being women and 146 men.

There will be no more registration before the city primaries next Tuesday and only one more period of enrollment is for the city election on Dec. 11. This final session will be on Wednesday, Nov. 24, the day after the primaries. Registration will continue on that date from 12 noon to 10 p. m. and will be the last session of 1920.

Yesterday's session was continuous from 8 to 9 p. m.

By wards, the enrollment was as follows:

Men—Ward 1, 4; ward 2, 12; ward 3, 10; ward 4, 2; ward 5, 4; ward 6, 24; ward 7, 13; ward 8, 13; ward 9, 7.

Modest Birthplace of Holy Cross —Great College Plans To Expand

HOLY CROSS WHEN FOUNDED IN 1843

Holy Cross college, one of the oldest institutions of higher education in New England, having reached the limits of its development with its present buildings, the alumni and former students of the school have started a movement for expansion. It is planned to add five new buildings to the campus at Worcester, a students' dormitory, a chapel, a lecture and science hall, an assembly and dining hall and an administration building.

Holy Cross was founded in 1843 in a small frame building. It has grown steadily since the original building was replaced years ago, but even with its present facilities it is forced to close its doors to scores of students every year because of lack of room for them. The alumni movement for an expansion to relieve that condition is taking form rapidly and the campaign for funds is now on in this city and elsewhere.

APPEAL FROM WRANGEL

His Premier Pleads to U. S. to Aid Refugees From Southern Russia

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 15.—M. Kelyevich, premier in the government of Gen. Wrangel, in talking to the American newspaper correspondents yesterday made an appeal for American aid for the refugees from Southern Russia.

"First," he said, "permit me to express heartfelt gratitude to the American people and the American Red Cross for their charitable work on behalf of the wounded and sick Russian refugees. The military disaster does not mean that there is no further necessity to render assistance. Aid now is more than ever a matter of life and death to the tens of thousands of unfortunate and utterly destitute refugees from the most cruel tyranny the world ever has known. Gen. Wrangel's army has been bled white. Although inferior in numbers it held position after position against the overwhelming weight of the reds.

"The situation became extremely critical when Gen. Wrangel was isolated, especially after the Polish armistice, when he supported the brunt of the red onslaughts. We expected Peterkop to hold out, but the premature frost proved a powerful ally to our enemy. Wrangel's positions were defended by frost-bitten, wounded, and exhausted soldiers, the dead were piled in heaps, the cruel artillery snatching human force which has now been reached. "Crimea, the last strip of Russia where the principles of truth, liberty and freedom prevailed, is being evacuated. The wounded, the children, the women and the sick will be evacuated first, because if left behind, their fate at the hands of the Bolsheviks would be fearful. Although saved from the Red barbarities, they are bound for an unknown destination where they will be without the means of support, in a strange country.

"We do not know where they can find refuge; we can only beg help. Gen. Wrangel in his last order pointed out the real situation to all who desired to embark on the ships. He not only did not advise them to go, but warned them of the danger of going to an unknown destination. The good people of the civilized world will not permit the destruction of peoples who are not responsible for the events except through their repudiation of atrocious barbarism. Our hopes will not be in vain that the powerful American people are in a position to help and know how.

"I am aware that America and the newly elected president are opposed to intervention in European politics. I am sure, however, of their readiness to contribute to philanthropic work not connected with politics. Wherever there is misery and calamity it is impossible not to need the flag of the American Red Cross.

"We appeal to the noble Americans to stretch out a helping hand to the numberless unfortunates who lost everything and are embarking now on the cold high seas, going God knows where. Our only hope is in the American people who surely will not be deaf to this piteous appeal and will earn the undying gratitude of the Russian people."

U. S. Ships to Assist

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—All available American warships in the Black Sea are to be used to assist refugees in leaving the Crimea in advance of the Bolshevik armies.

Authority for such use of the ships was given by the state and navy departments today, upon the urgent recommendations of Rear-Admiral McCully, commander of American warships in southern-Russian waters.

Y., Nov. 16.—Cuts in the wholesale prices of men's fall and winter suits ranging from 33 1/2 to 40 per cent were announced yesterday by 19 Rochester clothing manufacturers who are members of the National Association of Manufacturing Clothiers. Spring lines of the same manufacturers opened yesterday at prices 30 per cent lower than last year's prices.

nearly all the commanders. Despite their high morale, there is a limit to human force which has now been reached. "Crimea, the last strip of Russia where the principles of truth, liberty and freedom prevailed, is being evacuated. The wounded, the children, the women and the sick will be evacuated first, because if left behind, their fate at the hands of the Bolsheviks would be fearful. Although saved from the Red barbarities, they are bound for an unknown destination where they will be without the means of support, in a strange country.

"We do not know where they can find refuge; we can only beg help. Gen. Wrangel in his last order pointed out the real situation to all who desired to embark on the ships. He not only did not advise them to go, but warned them of the danger of going to an unknown destination. The good people of the civilized world will not permit the destruction of peoples who are not responsible for the events except through their repudiation of atrocious barbarism. Our hopes will not be in vain that the powerful American people are in a position to help and know how.

"I am aware that America and the newly elected president are opposed to intervention in European politics. I am sure, however, of their readiness to contribute to philanthropic work not connected with politics. Wherever there is misery and calamity it is impossible not to need the flag of the American Red Cross.

U. S. Ships to Assist

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—All available American warships in the Black Sea are to be used to assist refugees in leaving the Crimea in advance of the Bolshevik armies.

Authority for such use of the ships was given by the state and navy departments today, upon the urgent recommendations of Rear-Admiral McCully, commander of American warships in southern-Russian waters.

CUT SUIT PRICES
40 PER CENT

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 16.—Cuts in the wholesale prices of men's fall and winter suits ranging from 33 1/2 to 40 per cent were announced yesterday by 19 Rochester clothing manufacturers who are members of the National Association of Manufacturing Clothiers. Spring lines of the same manufacturers opened yesterday at prices 30 per cent lower than last year's prices.

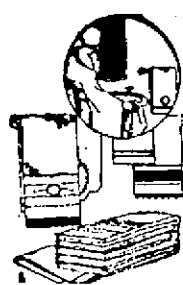

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—Chicago bakers were summoned to city hall yesterday by Russell Poole, secretary of the council's high cost of living committee, and urged to reduce the price of bread from 15 cents for a pound loaf to 10 cents.

JURY RETURNS VERDICT
A verdict has been returned by a jury in the superior court in favor of the plaintiff in the case of G. B. Wilkins, his wife, Mary E. Wilkins, both of Wilmington, and Miss Alice Fawthorpe, now in England, against Fred Ingham of Lowell. The suit was for the recovery of compensation for the smashing of an automobile and personal injuries resulting from a collision between two cars on the State road near Wameet station. Judge's verdict awarded compensation as follows: To G. B. Wilkins, $342; to Mary E. Wilkins, $500; to Miss Alice Fawthorpe, $100.

CONDUCTOR FIRED FOR CRITICIZING ROAD

LAWRENCE, Nov. 16.—Conductor Patrick F. Ryan was yesterday discharged from the service of the Eastern Massachusetts street railway by Manager John H. Hayes of the Lawrence division of the road for disloyalty to the company and the public in that he did not do his best to further the best interests of the company and the public in his capacity as conductor.

Ryan is said to have claimed that the road was not only giving the public poor service, but was charging excessive fares and was cheating the city of Lawrence out of taxes. He made these charges yesterday at a meeting of the city council, saying that the valuation of the company's property had been increased only $100 the past year in spite of the fact that all other property valuations had gone up much higher.

He also said at that meeting that he knew he was slated for discharge and defied Homer Loring, one of the public trustees of the road, to "fire him, remarking that in union there is strength.

Ryan has been in the employ of the road about two years, according to Manager Hayes, as a spare man. He lives in the Pleasant Valley section of Methuen.

Ryan has claimed that the road is charging excessive fares and that it hurt him every time he took up a fare, because he was sure that the public were paying altogether too much for the service they got.

John F. O'Brien, president of the Lawrence local of the Carmen's union, stated last night that the union would "look out" for Ryan.

When asked if that meant a strike, he said it did not, but that the union had an agreement with the road to arbitrate matters on which the employees and officials could not agree.

FAREWELL TO PASTOR
WORCESTER, Nov. 16.—A feature of the farewell reception tendered Dr. and Mrs. Harry Stiles Bradley last night at Piedmont church was the presentation of a large "grandfather" clock with three sets of chiming, and a magnificent silver tea and coffee service with a tray, all valued at $1500.

Dr. Bradley has accepted a call to State Street Congregational church, Portland, Me.

GETS LICENSE BACK

Lowell Man Involved in Fatal Automobile Accident Is Exonerated By State Registrar of Motor Vehicles (Special to The Sun)
STATE HOUSE, Boston, Nov. 16.—Andrew D. Moynihan of 69 Royal street, who was involved in a fatal automobile accident September 15, has been exonerated by Frank A. Goodwin, state registrar of motor vehicles, and Moynihan's license, suspended immediately after the accident, has been returned to him.

Moynihan's accident resulted in the death of Francis Aubrey of Lowell, and as usual in such cases, the registrar suspended his license and began an investigation of the circumstances surrounding the accident. The investigation has been completed, and the registrar has entered a finding that in his opinion there was no serious pointed to wait upon the loomfixers at their next meeting.

Nervous Breakdown

"I am so nervous it seems as though I should fly"—"My nerves are all on edge"—"I wish I were dead." How often have we heard these expressions or others quite as extravagant from some loved one who has been brought to this state by some female trouble which has slowly developed until the nerves can no longer stand up under it. No woman should allow herself to drift into this condition without giving that good old-fashioned root and herb remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

Read the Letters of These Two Women.

North East, Md.—"I was in ill health four or five years and doctored with one doctor after another but none helped me. I was irregular and had such terrible pain in my back, lower part of my body and down each side that I had to go to bed three or four days every month. I was very nervous, tired, could not sleep and could not eat without getting sick. A friend asked me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am sorry I did not take it sooner for it has helped me wonderfully. I don't have to go to bed with the pain, can eat without being sick and have more strength. I recommend your medicine and you are at liberty to publish my testimonial."
ELIZABETH WEAVER, R. R. 2, North East, Md.

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was run down and nervous, could not rest at night and was more tired in the morning than when I went to bed. I have two children, the youngest three months old and it was drudgery to care for them as I felt so irritable and generally worn out. From lack of rest and appetite my baby did not get enough nourishment from my milk so I started to give him two bottle feedings a day. After taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt like a new woman, full of life and energy. It is a pleasure to care for my children, and I am very happy with them and feel fine. I nurse my baby exclusively again, and can't say too much for your medicine."

HALEFAX, N. S., Nov. 16.—The "blue ribbon of the seas" fleetively tacked to the masthead of the Gloucester schooner Esperanto after her recent victory in the international fishermen's race here is to be sought by a brand new two sticker from Nova Scotia. This became known today, when announcement was made that W. J. Rous, a member of the Halifax sailing committee, was drawing plans for a semi-knockabout fishing schooner. Her keel is expected to be laid Dec. 1, and her builders hope she will slide into the water early in March. To qualify for the contest, the challenger will spend the full 1921 season on the fishing grounds.

AN OPEN LETTER*To The Voters of Lowell:—

One week from today, the primaries in our city elections are to be held.

To me, it seems the plain duty of every voter to show an active interest in the selection of candidates for the finals to be held in December.

Those who do not now interest themselves will have little right to criticize the administration of the men who take office—if there is any criticism. The burden of municipal government must rest squarely on all shoulders.

I am a candidate for commissioner of Lowell. As bearing on the question of my availability for such office, I desire to say that I was educated in the public schools of Lowell. I later attended and graduated from Dean Academy, and about 10 years ago I entered the dyeing business in my home city. The Bay State and Merrivale plants have since become important enterprises, carrying on business with many New England mills, and employing year in and year out a force of well satisfied men and women.

Our obligations as citizens do not end with the election of city officials, and our municipal obligations do not end with the maintenance of certain departments. A closer relationship between our citizens and our city government is needed. The civic spirit must be quickened. The city must grow through co-operation.

I seek your support for the office of commissioner on the broad ground of a pledged will to advance Lowell's general standing as a city.

Lawyer Guillet will attend the festivities as the president of the Federation of Franco-American Catholic societies of the United States.

The celebration will begin in the morning with a solemn high mass of thanksgiving in the church of the Precious Blood, which will be celebrated by Mgr. Douray. In attendance at the service will be His Eminence Cardinal Bégin of Quebec, Bishop Edmund of Valleyfield, Bishop Brunetta of Nicolet, Bishop Gauthier of Montreal, and the bishops of Providence, R. I., Hartford, Conn., and Burlington, Vt., as well as numerous priests from various centers of New England. At the close of the mass Mgr. Douray will be presented on address by members of his parish and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon dinner will be served to the invited guests. The festivities to be presided over by Cardinal Bégin. The speakers at the dinner will be Gov. Sansouct of Rhode Island, ex-Gov. Aram J. Pothier, Mayor Souci of Woonsocket; Elie Vézina of Woonsocket, secretary-general of l'Union St. Jean Baptiste d'Amérique; Dr. A. E. Brien of Manchester, N. H., president of the Canada-American society, and others.

The celebration will be brought to a close with a public meeting in the evening, which will be presided over by Cardinal Bégin, the principal speaker to be Lawyer J. H. Guillet of this city. Y. M. C. I. CARNIVAL WILL OPEN TOMORROW

Arrangements have been completed for the opening of the big Y.M.C.I. carnival in the institute building in Stackpole street tomorrow evening from present indications, the occasion will mark the beginning of one of the most successful events of its kind ever held here.

The carnival will continue three evenings, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday and the receipts will become a part of the Y.M.C.I. new building fund. It is the ambition of the Helvidere organization to erect a modern, fully equipped home where young men of the city may have every opportunity for physical and intellectual advancement, for companionship and for relaxation, from the duties and cares of everyday activity.

The committee in charge of the carnival has encompassed within the scope of its arrangements everything that a most enterprising vaudeville manager would include in a year's bill. There will be entertainment galore every evening, different artists appearing each night. There will be dancing on the smooth Y.M.C.I. hall with three orchestras furnishing music. Downstairs there will be pool and bowling, ball throwing games, contests for dolls, candy and cigars. The carnival committee has termed the affair "a whizz-bang of joy" and that describes it effectively and well. Only a nominal admission fee is to be charged and there is every indication that the cozy quarters of the institute will be packed every evening of the carnival.

BENSON MAKES REPLY

Answers Shipping Board's
Critics—Says He'll Let No
Wrongdoers Escape

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 16.—(By Associated Press.)—Replying to critics of the Shipping Board and Emergency Fleet Corporation, Rear-Admiral W. S. Benson, chairman of the board, declared, in an address here last night, before the South Atlantic Ports association, that his "new countrymen" could depend upon it that no wrongdoer connected with the board "will escape if his wrongdoing is called to my attention."

"Not only have I insisted upon the closest watch upon all matters," said Chairman Benson, "but I have followed the work of the Shipping Board in every port of the world with the one thought in mind that we are now reaching that crucial moment which spells either the success or failure of a permanent merchant marine."

"There is no effort on our part to shirk whatever responsibility we have assumed. We have insisted that at all times the records are open to the public. Every facility is offered to those who desire information."

"It is an easy matter for anyone to pick flaws in an organization like the Shipping Board. We had to train 300,000 shipbuilders and in the handling of our ships we have had to train thousands of men."

"Of course, in an organization of this magnitude, you will find here and there evidences of wrongdoing and now and then you will uncover a systematic effort to defraud."

"If mistakes have been made," he said, "they were mistakes that naturally may be expected in such a stupendous enterprise, involving as it does the active employment of more than 1000 sea-going vessels with the manifold problems involved in ship operation, the completion of a huge shipbuilding program embracing the payment of millions of dollars and the settlement of thousands of claims which come as a result of an effort to be fair to those men who, when we needed them, placed their facilities at our disposal and endeavored to do everything within their power to help this country in its ship-building program."

"We are not engaged in child's play; our effort is world-wide. Our work reaches into every part of the world; it affects every interest. It is your business to watch this development and to critically examine our work from day to day. It is your business to question what we do. It is a good thing that men are awakened to the splendid opportunity shipping affords, but while it is no child's play to build up this vast world-wide organization, I do say it is a child's play on the part of anyone who heedlessly spreads erroneous impressions which tend to destroy confidence in our ability to maintain, support and develop a permanent merchant marine, privately owned. All we ask is constructive criticism."

Appealed to President

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Two witnesses told the congressional committee investigating the Shipping Board that they appealed to the White House.

Capt. William H. Chambliss, formerly master of the steamer Lake Elkwood, said he was forcibly removed from his ship by Rio Janeiro police at the instigation of the acting American consul, who was also agent of the Shipping Board, because he would not join in a scheme for "graft" and approve excessive bills for repairs to the ship. The acting consul, he said, was A. T. Haebeler.

Capt. Chambliss testified that he called Sec. Tumulty, who did all he could when he laid the matter before John Barton Payne, then chairman of the board.

Charges against him and his first officer, he added, were brought by the consular agent through the state department and they were acquitted by the Steamboat Inspection Service.

Charles A. Elliott, first mate of the vessel, corroborated the captain as to uncalculated-for repairs. The mate testified to overhearing the captain being offered a bribe to "lay down" on his objections to the repair bills.

The captain and mate came home as passengers on another ship, they testified.

The captain said that he was unable to obtain further employment as master of a Shipping Board vessel. The mate also testified that he had been "black-listed" by the board.

Thomas H. Purcell, who described himself as an expert riveter of the old school, said that in 1915, when he was

Keep Looking Young!

Nobody wants to grow old looking any faster than they can help; some look old at forty while others don't begin to show their age at seventy.

Everybody knows that to keep young looking you have first got to be blessed with good health, and second to do as little worrying as possible. Most of the ills that the flesh is heir to are caused by a disordered stomach, liver or kidneys. These can be regulated and kept in good condition by taking SEVEN BARKS, nature's great remedy of roots and herbs.

Digestive troubles also spoil beauty, rob you of sleep, make dark rings around the eyes and ruin the complexion. Let SEVEN BARKS digest your food and tone up your stomach, then you may eat what you like; bright eyes will soon return, and you will feel fit for your daily duties.

Science says that old age begins with weakened kidneys and digestive organs. If you keep these organs cleansed and in proper working order, old age can be deferred and life prolonged beyond the average age. No better remedy can be found than SEVEN BARKS to keep the stomach, liver and kidneys in good order, thus assuring you good health.

Old-fashioned nature's remedies are the best; so don't fail to keep a bottle of SEVEN BARKS on hand. Get it at your druggists. Price, 50 cents.—Adv.

Macartney's

72 MERRIMACK STREET

Inspector of hulls at the Submarine Boat Corporation, some of the riveting was "ferce."

When his complaints to his superior brought no results, he sent home defective rivets to President Wilson. He could not say if the president ever saw the evidence, but he did know he was "fired for sending it." "They gave me only just about enough time to get my clothes and get out of the yard," he said.

Later on, he said, the president answered his complaints through Sec. Tumulty. As a result he was reinstated as an inspector and given his back pay.

Chairman Walsh asked how it was that ships on which he charged poor riveting was done were still afloat, and the witness said he could not tell. He afterwards said that poor work might not cause a ship to break down for four or five years. He challenged the committee to go with him to any ship they might name that was built during the war in some of the yards and he would point out to them evidence of poor work.

"FINDERS KEEPERS"

Judge Decides in Favor of
Boy Who Dug up Gold

NEWCASTLE, Ind., Nov. 16.—Ownership in gold found buried on a farm near Greensboro six months ago by Levi Todd, a 13-year-old boy, was settled yesterday in the circuit court here by Judge Gause, deciding that "finders are keepers."

While excavating for a basement under an old house young Todd drove his pick into an earthenware jar containing the money, and then started a three-cornered fight for its ownership.

Mrs. Vickery's mother had buried it, and that Mr. Hardin's ownership of the land did not give him ownership of the money, because he was ignorant of its existence.

MOVIE PROPRIETORS
HELD FOR DEATHS

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The two proprietors and the doorman of the East Side motion picture house where six children were killed and 12 others injured in a needless panic Sunday night were held in $10,000 bail late yesterday for a hearing Friday.

They were arraigned earlier in the day on charges that they had failed to take proper precautions for safety; that an exit door was locked, and that they violated the law prohibiting the admittance to theatres of unaccompanied minors. The panic occurred when smoke from a furnace filled the theatre and caused a cry of "fire."

The 12 children injured last night were reported still in a serious condition.

FIRST SNOW OF SEASON IN BOSTON

BOSTON, Nov. 16.—The first snow flurry of the season which visited

Greater Boston yesterday are likely to prove forerunners of more snow in the next two days, for the official forecast predicts unsettled weather for today and tomorrow with either snow or rain and fresh north to northeast winds.

A disturbance, central last night over the Gulf of Mexico, is apparently moving northward, causing rain in the southeastern states and as far north as Atlantic City. Whether the precipitation from this disturbance will reach Boston as rain or snow is impossible to say yet, since the temperatures in this section are such as to make it just about on the border line between the two. In any event, no large amount, either of rain or snow, is anticipated.

Yesterday morning's minimum was 32, exactly at the freezing point, but the temperature rose to 42 before the day was over. At 3 last night the reading was 38, a good temperature either for rain or light snow.

WOMEN OWE LIVES TO POLICEMAN

BROCKTON, Nov. 16.—To the alertness of Policeman George Dean two Campbell women owe their lives. Noticing the motionless body of a woman at a lodging house window shortly after midnight, while patrolling his beat, Dean started an investigation. Entering the house he found it filled with gas fumes. He discovered Mrs. Alvera Nelsh overcome in a chair and another woman on the floor. He sent in an emergency call and several officers and a doctor responded. They worked over the women, who were revived within a short time. A third person, sleeping near an open window, was unaffected.

MUSICAL APPRECIATION

Irish folk songs, sung by Miss Frances Porter, a student at the Normal school, were a feature of the session last evening of the class in musical appreciation being conducted by Miss Ives Field Damon at the Community Service club. The songs were "The Red Haired Girl," "My Thousand Times Beloved" and "In the Foggy Dew." They were arranged by Miss Margaret Fox, who spent considerable time in Ireland familiarizing herself with the songs of the people. The accompaniments are arranged for the piano. Mrs. Damon's lecture was devoted to an exposition of the music to be played at the concert in Lowell next Monday evening of the Boston Symphony orchestra, she gave sketches of the lives of the composers whose works are to be played, and told of characteristics of their work. Graphophone records of the music were played.

WILL OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

A banquet, post prandial exercises and general dancing will mark the observance of the 331 anniversary of the founding of the Father, Mother, Total Abstinence society in North Billerica Thursday evening. The anniversary speaker at the exercises will be Probation Officer Edward E. Slatery, of this city, founder of the society. The affair will be for members of the society and their wives and lady friends.

BILLERICA NEWS

Acting under instructions given at the last special town meeting, Moderator Charles H. Rames of Billerica has appointed the members of the board of selectmen on a special committee to appraise the land damages to the John H. Foster estate near the new bridge over the Concord river in North Billerica. About 12,000 square feet of land owned by this estate was taken over in order to partly straighten the highway near the bridge and the county commissioners awarded the estate $200 in their decree. This was considered a low figure by both the estate and town and at a special town meeting held last June it was voted to appoint a committee to recommend just what the town would pay and report at the next annual town meeting.

STARLIGHT GIRLS

A very pretty dancing party was held at Lincoln hall Friday evening by the Starlight Girls. There was about 500 present. The officers were: General manager, Genevieve Paul, assistant manager, Catherine Lamb; floor director, Gertrude Corkery; assistant floor director, Mary McCann. AD BOWLING.

FORMER LOWELL
PASTOR DEAD

Rev. George E. Martin, D.D., who for seven years was pastor of the Kirk Street church of this city, died yesterday at Fairhaven as a result of a shock he received while preaching a sermon at the Fairhaven Congregational church Sunday. Deceased was 69 years and 10 months of age. He had served as pastor in Lowell, Brattleboro, Vt., Brockton, St. Louis and Philadelphia. The funeral will take place from his home in Auburndale, Thursday afternoon.

BURIED WRONG WAY

FORTSMOUTH, O.—Mrs. George Willis thinks someone else should pay the funeral expenses of a man she buried under the impression it was her husband. She identified the mutilated body of a man found along the railroad tracks as her husband who had disappeared several weeks previous. Now the husband, who had been working in the northern part of the state, has returned home, denying and proving he is not dead. Mrs. Willis is wondering whose husband she buried.

TRIUMPH OF THE REDS

The disaster to General Wrangel in his gallant fight against the Bolsheviks is only what was to be expected. Without resources and with great inferiority in numbers, he could not possibly hold out against the hosts of the Bolsheviks who, since the signing of the armistice with Poland, have concentrated their efforts to crush his forces.

The allies may as well now concede that they will have to deal with a Soviet Russia. If Russia were at peace the people would have an opportunity of judging of the shortcomings of the soviet system. The leaders have practically nationalized everything, but since assuming control, they have been continually at war. It will require a period of peace to demonstrate beyond a doubt the radical defects of their system of government. It is perhaps better, therefore, that Bolshevism be given an unrestricted opportunity to demonstrate the falsity of its claims to superiority.

The question now uppermost in the minds of the allied nations and others is whether the Reds will stop their warfare, whether they will be satisfied with holding Russia intact or whether they will endeavor to push their campaign into other lands in which they have been trying to secure a following through propaganda. Even in the United States they have followers who distribute their literature and if they can exert their influence here, it may be assumed that they have been much more successful in their missionary work in the nations along the Russian borders.

The Red menace is apparently in Europe to stay until it either falls through the inherent defects of the Russian system or is crushed by a combination of the other powers. Should the rest of the world return to peaceful conditions and the bloody regime of Bolshevism be maintained in Russia, the time would come when in the interests of civilization and humanity the other great powers would have to combine to restore peace under civilized government in Russia. Whether Russia will menace the world same as did Germany, will depend on future developments.

ENFORCE THE LAW

Drunkenness is becoming so common on the streets and in other public places that there is a general demand for a strict enforcement of the prohibitory law.

It is rather strange that the police go on arresting so many people for drunkenness without finding out where they get the liquor, whether they buy it in the saloons, from bootleggers, in the back alleys or from the manufacturers of "moonshine." This, it seems, should be an easy task for police officials if they really desired to know.

It reports now current are true, the law is violated at numerous points throughout the city under the nose of the police, so that the belief prevails that most of the police officers are cognizant, if not familiar, with existing conditions, and the wonder is that they do not take effective measures to stop the traffic. We understand that some officers who find the liquor law violated quail openly on their respective beats ignore the fact as if it were none of their business.

It might be well to ask why the police department does not enforce this law as strictly as any other.

Is it an understood thing that the department is not to meddle with those who violate the law in a quiet way? Supt. Welch is at the head of the department and the citizens are wondering why he does not enforce the prohibitory law. Are his "hands tied?"

Why allow itinerant and other vendors to fleece the people and spread demoralization by dispensing liquor at extortionable prices or at any price?

Evidence appears daily in the courts and elsewhere that there is a very serious relapse to the liquor habit by men who would put their money to better use but for the facility with which they can purchase drink. It is time to stop the practice and unless conditions are speedily improved the Sun will proceed to show that liquor is sold here with as much freedom almost as when the business was licensed.

ARE WE PROTECTED?

Six children died in a needless panic caused by a smoking furnace in a small picture theatre in the East Side of New York city.

When the smoke appeared in the body of the theatre, somebody shouted "Fire" and that was the signal for a rush to the exits in which six little ones were trampled to death and many others badly injured.

What happened in that little theatre is liable to happen in almost any small picture house in which by accident or otherwise, any sign of fire appears.

There have been so many fire horrors in theatres that the people are easily frightened on the slightest sign of fire. Here in Lowell we have too many small picture houses competing for business. There seems to be an impression that anybody who wishes to enter the picture business has nothing to do but to secure the building and the outfit. It is chiefly in the smaller houses that the greatest danger is found in case of a panic.

It would be well for the officials of the fire department to keep a close watch on these places in order to see that the requirements of the law in regard to fire prevention are fully carried out.

It is important that a police officer or fireman should be on hand at every performance in order to protect the lives of the people in case of emergency. Unless we are mistaken, the entrance to one or two of the Lowell picture houses is such that in a rush outward, the danger of loss of life would be very great. Those who have regard for safety first will avoid the poky houses in which the fire hazards are above the average.

THE CITY ELECTION

Next week the voters of Lowell will be called upon to select candidates to fill two vacancies on the municipal council and three on the school board. There are fourteen aspirants for commissioner and twelve for the school board. Looking over the list of candidates they do not seem to be above the average standing of the men who seek such positions.

The voters will have to find out from reliable sources who these men are and find the number pick four to go on the ballot for commissioner and six for school board. While the primary ballot will have twice as many candidates as there are places to be filled on election day, in the primaries no citizen can vote for more than two candidates for commissioner and three for school committee.

In this municipal election, the women will vote for commissioner for the first time and it is expected they will show better judgment than the men in rejecting the undeserving, the incompetent and the dishonest.

THE GREAT REMEDY

In the application of the golden rule to business, Mr. Arthur Nash of Cincinnati has made a great success of his tanning factory without any unions or other organizations to interfere with him in carrying on his plans.

His address at the Grace Universalist church Sunday was highly interesting and instructive as showing the result of a real desire to be fair and of the application of Christian principles to business problems.

There can be no doubt that this alone offers a proper solution of all the differences existing between capital and labor, employer and employee in this country.

WOMAN IN CONGRESS

From all accounts, Miss Alice Robertson of Oklahoma, the lone woman of congress, will be an improvement upon Miss Rankin. Miss Robertson is older in years and has many idiosyncracies, if one is to believe the newspaper stories. But one thing appears to be unquestioned in regard to Miss Robertson. Nobody questions her sound common sense or her force of will in standing for what she believes to be right. Her influence in congress will doubtless be exerted in favor of justice and humanity, even though she is a republican.

PHOTOGRAPHS BY WIRE

The transmission of photographs by telegraph is another step forward in the wonders of electricity. This feat has already been performed in London and its first trial in this country has just been conducted by the New York World and St. Louis Post Dispatch. This is fully as wonderful as the photograph, the wireless telephone and other modern inventions which have achieved what was hitherto supposed to be impossible.

The secret sessions of the charter commission seem to have been about as secret as the executive sessions of the United States senate used to be. Nobody has been snooping upon the domain of Secretary Campbell, who alone was to give out the news and he denies having given any.

If Greece has defeated Premier Venizelos, it has rejected its greatest statesman, the man who guided the nation through the supreme crisis of its history and enabled it to win out over powerful opposition with a minimum of loss to the kingdom.

What a modest dresser Solomon "in all his glory" would have seemed compared with Senator Harding. If the story about all the clothes he has ordered for White House wear is true.

Oh, for an army of men of the type of the Light Brigade to ride "onward, right onward, into the valley of death" in the Crimea once more against the red hordes of the Bolsheviks.

Looking at the list of aspirants for places in the municipal council, we can perhaps take courage that the darkest hour may come just before the dawn of the new charter.

When we look at the long list of candidates for municipal office we feel like commending the women for the shining example they have set in keeping out of the fray.

Senator Harding has been selected to fill a proud office, but think of Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis' honors as head of organized baseball.

Let us hustle around and surprise ourselves and the rest of the world by making the 1920 new members sought by the Red Cross 26,000.

"I am joyful because of my bearing," says Miss Amy Lowell, poet. "I have not a moment for 'brains' either."

The habits cast at the city election are to be learned, for departed political horses, as it were.

Hardy's annual prayer for Yale's fate doesn't seem quite so applicable when we think of real prices.

Giving Him the Limit

"How much shall I charge Mr. Spot-cash for this last suit of his?" asked the tailor's clerk, as he hesitated in making out the account. "Fifty dollars, same as last time?"

"Ah," tutored the man of snips and seams. "Let me see. It's that gray stripe, isn't it?"

"Yes," replied the clerk.

"And he always pays up promptly and never haggles?"

"Best paying customer we have," said the clerk enthusiastically.

"I don't think any price was mentioned," mused the tailor. "O, well, charge him $75."—Houston Post.

Not Very Watering

A smartly dressed woman who visited a store to make several purchases noticed that as one salesman passed her on to another the remark was made in a stage whisper:

"Two-ten."

She was struck by the oft-repeated remark, and finally said:

"What does two-ten mean?"

"It's nothing," replied the man, "just a pass-word."

But she was not satisfied. So when the messenger brought her purchases home she said to him:

"Boy, would you like to earn a quarter?"

"You bet, miss," was the reply.

"Tell me what does two-ten mean and I'll give you the money."

"That's easy," replied the youngster. "It means keep your two eyes on her 10 fingers."

She had been taken for a shoplifter.—Hoboken Sunday Herald.

As It Ought to Be

(Copyright, 1920, N.E.A.)

Now, football as it ought to be is not as it was taught to me.

For when the captain cries his call And makes obsequious to the ball, He ought to use a lucky English Which anybody might distinguish.

But does he do so?

Does he? Nay! The figures of his speech betray Direct intent, as I believe, Well calculated to deceive.

(Two seventy-five, ninety, eleven, Ten off for cash, plus fifty-seven) Which surely, as we all are sensible, Is nothing less than reprehensible.

And when the runner has the ball, He's almost sure to have a fall, A fall provoked to some extent, By rival balls, on mischief bent.

Truly such conduct, coarse and rude, Excites a deep solicitude, Least strife for physical ability Affect their natural gentility.

Better by far it were, I say, To cheer the runner on his way And at his rivals, in succession, Applaud his meretricious progression.

Let, in the midst of their banners, They lose their modesty of manners.

For, if it be so, let it be so, And let not play be played so, I'm very sure some rule is needed That runners should not be impeded.

For, if they are 'tis my contention 'Tis almost sure to cause dissension, Which means that staid, serene urbanity

The game should foster in humanity.

Let, then, each greeting and response Be ever "After you, Adios!" And football be the crown and chime Symbols of Man's Altruism!

—Edmund Vance Cooke.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

Did you know that the Smith family sent a larger representation to the world war than any other one family? According to figures issued by the bureau of war risk insurance at Washington in a most interesting booklet which has come into the hands of a number of local ex-service men, 51,990 men named Smith applied for war risk insurance during the war.

The Brown family was next with a representation of 45,000. The Williams sent 41,000 members, the Jones, 23,650, the Andersons, 22,000, the Walkers, 18,500, and the Millers, 20,000. There were 3412 Willie Smiths and of 52 John O'Briens 14 made their allotment to wives named Mary.

The longest name on record in the files of the insurance bureau is that of Harry Adolph Thomas Richard Eugene Bullock. The booklet is also replete with interesting statistics concerning the part played by various countries in the great conflict. For instance, the grand total number of those who were killed or died of wounds in the war was 7,455,000 of which 50,321 came from the United States. Russia suffered the greatest loss and Germany, France and England were next in the order named.

British ships carried more Americans abroad than those of any other country, according to the booklet. Forty-nine per cent, or 1,424,000 American soldiers were carried overseas in British vessels. The United States carried 15 per cent, of her men, Italian ships three per cent, French ships two per cent, and Russian ships one per cent. England lost 1,557,000 gross tons of shipping during the war while this country's losses totaled 305,000. Massachusetts made a comparatively poor showing in the number of her men who were physically fit for the draft. Only 54 men out of each 100 examined passed. The middle western states made the best showing in this respect. Members of the 27th Division will be interested to know that their outfit spent more months in France than any other division except the first and second. The Yankee Division was five months in active battle service and was 10 months on French soil before entering the line.

Was So Nervous He Had to Quit Work

Connecticut Man Was Near Break-down When He Learned of Remedy That Helped Him

Loss of health often means loss of income. If you would save yourself from a possible breakdown and save those dependent upon you from suffering, guard your health. A tendency to catch cold easily, palpitation of the heart and shortness of breath after slight effort, weakness, dizziness, sleeplessness and nervousness are all warnings of thin blood. If you have these symptoms do not delay any longer but begin treatment with the tonic which Mr. Joseph Landry of No. 13 Grand street, Hartford, Conn., so strongly recommends.

"I had been in poor health for several months," says Mr. Landry. "I became so nervous that I could not sit still five minutes at a time and I had spells of nervousness that were so severe that I would have to give up my work and go home to bed. My sleep was broken and unrefreshing and I had severe headaches and pains in my back. My strength seemed to be leaving me and I became worried."

"I read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and got a box. About a week after I began to take the pills I felt a little better and I was so encouraged that I kept on. Nothing has ever helped me as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did. My nerves became stronger, the headaches and pain in my back disappeared and I sleep well. I feel better in every way now and no longer lose time from my work."

The free booklet, "Diseases of the Nervous System," will interest you. Write for it today to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or they will be sent by mail on receipt of price, 60 cents per box.—Adv.

WENT TO GROTON

Ladies' Auxiliary of Local Post of the American Legion Entertained Soldiers at Groton Hospital

When about 60 members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the local post of the American Legion visited the Groton hospital Sunday afternoon to entertain the soldiers now recuperating there, the following program was carried out: Song, "Just Like a Gypsy," Miss Sadie Stebbins; toe dance, Miss Anna Cavanaugh; songs and dances, the Dutton Sisters; dance, Miss Catherine Hoyle; song, Frank Connor; song, Miss Florence Hagley; songs and readings, Miss Peggy O'Reilly; original songs and sketches, the Dion sisters; violin solos, Miss Marion Curtin. Miss Ella Carrou was the accompanist for the occasion. Mrs. David Krawley was very helpful in securing the loan of 15 automobiles to make the trip to the hospital. Mrs. William H. Merritt, president of the women's auxiliary was chaperon for the party.

WENT OVER DUMP

Two horses being used by Contractor Whitcomb in connection with the excavation work at the Rogers Hall school lot in Belvidere, and which caused serious injury Saturday noon, when attached to a dump wagon they fell backwards over a 25-foot embankment on the High street extension side of Fort Hill park. The driver of the horses had the wagon backed up to the edge of the embankment where the clay taken from the school lot is dumped; but by accident backed it too far. The weight of the loaded wagon pulled the horses over the dump and pinned them beneath it at the bottom. It took some time to disentangle the horses from the wagon and harness, but aside from a few scratches they were uninjured.

NOT A BIG SUCCESS

The tag day for the benefit of the Marathon Social and Athletic club conducted in this city, was not as successful as anticipated. The sum of $300 was collected through public subscriptions, while the drive was for $3000. There were 51 young women 2-12 years of age, the principal stars of the city, but because of the cold weather and the employment conditions in the local mills they did not meet with any great success. Miss Alice Morzan collected $37, the largest amount received by any single collector.

RIDING TO HEALTH ON SADDLE

The automobile, asserts a prominent official of the Horse Association of America, adds greatly to the sedentary living in cities.

"Health and physical strength is to be found in the saddle," he insists. "Horseback riding provides not only muscular tone but internal massage and stimulation of the vital organs."

The association is boosting the saddle in cities, campaigning for bridge paths and a return of the old-fashioned livery stable to make it possible for the man who cannot keep his horse in his backyard to be able to get an occasional horseback ride.

Children especially are urged to get into the saddle. The association fears that unless the young people are brought acquainted with the horse the coming generation will be afraid to get into the saddle.

TO RESUME TRADE WITH RUSSIA

LONDON, Nov. 15.—Representatives of the Russian trade delegation in London, headed by Leonid Krassin, were in conference yesterday with the cabinet, discussing preliminaries for the possible resumption of trade with soviet Russia.

Some progress was made, but it is stated there is a sharp division of opinion in the cabinet on the subject. Premier Lloyd George is reported to favor resumption, but several prominent cabinet members oppose it.

Lloyd George is said to be supported among others, by Andrew Bonar Law, government leader in the house of commons and Sir Robert S. Horne, president of the board of trade, who heretofore had opposed the recognition policy.

The difficulty of the situation is made greater by the attitude of France where general public opinion is reflected as against any resumption at present. It is stated that Great Britain will not resume trade with the soviets without the consent of the French cabinet, which has been informed of yesterday's proceedings and requested to comment upon them.

SEEK TO SETTLE WAGE DISPUTE

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 15.—Representatives of the anthracite miners and operators resumed conferences here today in another effort to reach a settlement of their wage dispute.

When the conference adjourned on Nov. 14, it virtually was deadlocked. Should no agreement be reached today, miners' representatives said they probably would appeal to President Wilson.

Among the men's demands are increases equal to the 27 per cent granted bituminous miners, a 48 minimum day rate and a universal 8-hour day.

WHITNEY GIVEN YEAR FOR FORGERY

NEWPORT, N. H., Nov. 15.—William B. Whitney of Langdon, who was arrested at Richmond, Me., on a charge of forging a check, was sentenced today to imprisonment for not less than a year and a day nor more than two years, in superior court here late yesterday by Judge Marble. Whitney pleaded guilty of raising a check of the town of Langdon from $155 to $255.

"SOUVENIR" TAYLOR DEAD
HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 15.—William Harrison Taylor, known throughout the state as "Souvenir" Taylor, died suddenly at his home last night of heart disease. He was born in Hartford, R. I., 58 years ago. He was a newspaperman for a number of years and then became a politician.

Also Stops All Itching of Eczema Almost Immediately

"I felt it my duty to write you a letter of thanks for your wonderful Peterson's Ointment. I had a running sore on my left leg for one year. I began to use Peterson's Ointment three weeks ago and now it is healed. A. C. Gilbreath 105 Reed Street, Erie, Pa. I'd rather get a letter like that, says Peterson of Buffalo, than have John D. Rockefeller give me a thousand dollars. It does me a lot of good to be able to be of use to my fellow man. For years I have been selling through druggists a large box of PETERSON'S OINTMENT for 25 cents. The healing power in this ointment is marvelous. Eczema goes in a few days. Old sores heal up like magic when this ointment is used. I can't say too much for it. It is simply wonderful. Mail orders filled by Peterson Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo, N. Y.—ADV."

ADRIATIC SETTLEMENT

Great Britain, France and U. S. Express Satisfaction With Result

ROME, Nov. 16.—Great Britain, France and the United States, through their ambassadors, have expressed satisfaction with the settlement of the Adriatic question reached at Rapallo, Italy, last week. Premier Giolitti yesterday announced at a cabinet meeting that a statement issued by the Stefani News Agency, a semi-official organization.

He declared the situation in the armistice zone around Fiume gave no cause for anxiety. He said that, although he did not understand what was meant by a strategic frontier for such a small state as Fiume, her liberty and independence were safeguarded, as under the treaty will be violation by the Jugo-Slavs would be tantamount to a declaration of war on Italy.

LADIES NIGHT—NIT!

Wrong Notice Stirrs Fish and Game Club

It is stated in the local morning paper that the Lowell Fish and Game Association will hold ladies' night in the Oia Hotel building this evening. President Harris says that the Lowell Fish and Game Association is not having any sort of entertainment this evening. "I do not know," he said, "where the morning paper got its news, but it is wrong and I'm afraid that a considerable number of people will be disappointed. The association is not having any sort of entertainment this evening. We held a ladies' night early in the present month and it is not going to be repeated tonight."

BETTY AND HER BEAU

WORRY AND WRINKLES

A woman's nerves are more truly the cause of worry than outside troubles. The nerves are to a woman's body the telegraph system which surely warns her of any trouble in the feminine make-up. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the ideal woman's tonic for such conditions. When a woman complains of backache, dizziness or pain—when everything looks black before her eyes—a dragging feeling, with nervousness, she should turn to this "temperance" herbal tonic. It can be obtained in almost every drug store in the land. Put up in tablets or liquid.

BUFFALO, N. Y.—"I certainly am pleased to testify for, and recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. After taking a few bottles I feel better than I have for years. I know of no other medicine on the market today that is so good for nervousness and feminine weakness. I shall never cease recommending the 'Favorite Prescription' to my friends."—MABEL BROCK, Care of 42 Choat Street.

HUERTA TO HEAD OBREGON CABINET

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 16.—Adolfo de la Huerta, provisional president of Mexico, will head the cabinet of Gen. Alvaro Obregon when the latter assumes the presidency on Dec. 1, says the Excelsior. Alberto J. Paul, the newspaper says, will be named secretary of the treasury and Gen. P. Elias Calles will succeed himself as secretary of war.

WOMEN TAKE ACTION

Plan to Create Sentiment in Favor of Bill Providing For Proper Care of Mothers and New-Born Babies

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Plans for creating public sentiment in favor of a bill to be submitted to the next session of congress providing for the proper care of mothers and new-born babies today occupied the attention of 200 women delegates to the first conference of the second region of the National League of Women Voters, which will close with a dinner this evening. Mrs. Maud Wood Park, chairman of the league, said at least 20,000 mothers and babies die every month for want of proper care. A conference of women has been called to meet next Monday in Washington to discuss methods of promoting the bill.

BUENOS AIRES, Nov. 15.—Argentina will send the battleship Rivadavia to Chile to participate in the Magellan celebration.

SENDS DOCTOR TO JAIL

COVINGTON, Ky.—Judge Lewis L. Manson, Covington police judge, is no respecter of persons in his court. When Dr. P. T. Adams, widely known physician, was arrested on charge of speeding, Manson fined him $50 and costs and sentenced him to jail for three days. "You and I are friends, I am your lawyer and you are my doctor," Judge Manson said. "It does not matter to me in this court. I am here to administer justice as I see it. And you will serve that jail sentence in spite of our friendship or what any of our friends may do."

"MAMMA'S BOY" RE-ELECTED

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.—They told Harry Burn, member of the legislature, he'd not be returned because he voted for the woman's suffrage bill. Burn was called "mamma's boy" because when he cast the 11th-hour vote for the bill which gave millions of women the right to vote, he admitted he had voted for the bill because his mother had written him to do so. But he was re-elected. Burn at the time said: "A boy can't go wrong if he listens to his mother."

BIRD'S-EYE VIEW

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—M. W. Todd was trying doors in the sixth floor of the Hotel Baltimore here when House Detective Alex Johnson discovered him. "What doing?" inquired Johnson, pointing at the same time grabbing Todd by the neck. "Good afternoon," responded Todd, biting Johnson's wrist. "I'm looking for a bird's-eye view of your town." A judge offered to let Todd enrich the public treasury by $200 if he was in town the next day.

ST. MARGARET'S REUNION THURSDAY

The eighth annual reunion of St. Margaret's parish will be held in Assen hall on Thursday evening and an elaborate program has been arranged. During the past few weeks committees have been busy on plans for the affair and nothing has been left undone to make this year's party one of the most successful in the history of the parish.

A concert program, in which will appear some of Lowell's leading talent, will be held from 8 to 9 o'clock. A feature will be the singing of some of the favorite compositions of other days. Of course many of the later day numbers will also be given.

The general dancing will start at 9 o'clock and continue until midnight. The dance order is a well diversified one and will include several of the old-time dances.

Rev. Charles J. Galligan, pastor, and Rev. Stephen Murray, assistant, have worked untiringly on the arrangements and they have been ably assisted by efficient committees. Miss Julia J.

Lanen is general manager of the party, with John F. Roane, Jr., floor director, Joseph Maguire, assistant, Mrs. D. J. Cooney, chairman of the ladies' committee, and John James B. Casey, chairman of the men's committee.

OLDEST GREEK WOMAN
DIED THIS MORNING

Evangelia Dimitropoulos, aged 104 years, died this morning at her home, 20 No. Franklin court. She is survived by one son and one daughter and several grandchildren. Deceased was the oldest Greek woman in Lowell and possibly the oldest woman of any nationality in this city.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

A real wizard xylophonist in Alexandria, the gentleman who heads off this week's bill at B. F. Keith's theatre, and the only fault that last evening's audience had to find with him was that he didn't give enough. A headliner is usually expected to offer a more or less generous repertoire, but if memory serves, Alexandria played only two numbers. Those were excellent, perhaps the best xylophonic selections that have been heard here in months.

Alexandria opens his act in a rather unexpected manner. There's a whole lot of comedy to it and for a minute or two one doesn't realize who the real Alexandria is. Stakes properties are flying about at a jokin' wind pace and for a time the act seems to be starting off very unorthodoxly. Eventually, however, things are straightened out and Alexandria begins to hang away at his instrument. From then on he has his audience with him every minute and at the end, pleading for more.

If you were a blushing bride married but a few hours, how would you like somebody to tell you that your husband had been married four times before, had eight or nine children and was a crook by profession? There's the situation that "Peggy Moore" faces in the mystery farce, "Peggy's Wedding Night," presented by Jean Chase & Co. "Peggy" becomes so frightened that she won't allow her husband to bring a quarter of a mile of her much to his consternation and surprise. However, it finally appears that a couple of practical jokers have been trying to get even with a joke which "Peggy's" husband played on them when they were married and matters turn out happily. But in the meantime, there's a bit of fun for the audience. Jean Chase makes a joke, naming "Peggy" and her supporting company is excellent.

Ed Morton was scheduled for appearance at this week's bill but sudden illness has made it impossible for him to perform. In his place Manager Hickett has secured one of the best acts of its kind which has appeared in the city. While the two girls who play the piano and violin are in singly while the two dancers who do all their costume changing in plain view of the audience, Harry Bender and Barney Hoer are two young men who open the bill in a peppy fashion with their strength demonstrations.

A comedy, Topics of the Day and Kinogram News Weekly are the motion picture features and, as usual, are most enjoyable.

DOWS—TWO DRUG STORES

show of "gorgeous gowns" and "heavenly hats" to use the alliterative descriptive terms of the play bills, and the other a comedy drama entitled "Lombardi, Ltd." The material for the style show is provided by two of the leading shops of the city. There are frills, furs and furbelows and hats that are visions of loveliness. The play is given by the Lowell players, with their usual excellence of action and evidence of sincere desire to please. "Lombardi, Ltd." is the work of Fred and Fannie Hulton. In writing it they took the make-up of femininity wearing apparel and were around him a series of incidents that have the material for comedy in them. There are the elements in the plot that are so popular nowadays of chorus girls and a rounder of ingenious wealth whose pastime is the luring of susceptible young women within his web. Lombardi, the dressmaking artist, who has his salon on the top floor, one of the fair maidens whom he adores with a pure and inspiring passion, deserts him for the aforementioned rounder. In his grief he turns quickly to the police, who are on the scene who have long and truly loved him, and love, real love, triumphs in the end. The members of the company, without exception, appear to advantage in the play. The play is not an easy one to act, and players of less skill and training than the Lowell Players might have made much less of it. Milton Byron, "Lombardi," carries the burden of the acting. He has a dozen lines for every one that is allotted to the other members of the cast. His work is a finished piece of acting. Marguerite Fields, as Nora Blake, Lombardi's assistant, gives a well thought out and finished portrayal of the neglected sweetheart for whom his triumphs are a bitter-sweet. As a married woman, who has starved herself to retain her curves as an asset of the business, makes a pretty picture. Florence Hill, as Daisy, another maid, is as usual, brisk, vivacious and altogether delightful.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE
There's an excellent double feature showing at the Merrimack Square theatre for the first part of the week, one which is bound to please motion picture fans of all varieties of taste. Wallace Sturge in "Always and Forever," adapted from Ben Ames Williams' noted story "Toujours de l'Audace," which appeared recently in the Saturday Evening Post and H. B. Warner in "Felix O'Day," an intensely interesting story of the adventures of a young Irishman, are the outstanding attractions.

In his latest starring vehicle Wallace Sturge portrays the strongest and most virile role, or rather, two roles, he has ever attempted. This is not a part in which Mr. Sturge is seen as a stolid fellow, but he plays both the hero and the heavy, the latter being a crook who causes the hero to be shanghaied while he assumes the place of his wealthy victim in society.

In the course of the development of the remarkable story the star actually battles with himself in a wonderful photographic feat, possible only by the double exposure method, but so skillfully done as to amaze every beholder. There is romance, action in the story and it is of that gripping quality which is bound to hold the attention of audiences to the very finish.

Mr. Sturge is ably supported by Margaret Loomis, the charming co-star, and the production as a whole should please immensely.

"Felix O'Day" is an adaptation of the novel of the same name by F. Hopkinson Smith, starring J. B. Warner, and directed by Robert Thornby. It is one of those stories of a boy's life that will find ready appeal among present day patrons.

Felix O'Day, in his search for the man who ruined his father and later his death, and who also robbed him of the love of his wife, discovers the latter in a cheap rooming house in New York. It is then when the two come face to face, that the height of Mr. Warner's dramatic accomplishment is reached. His portrayal is forceful and dynamic and one that overtops his previous successes.

A Ben Turpin comedy, The International News and Topics of the Day round out the bill.

RIALTO THEATRE
A portrayal of Helen Keller's life and her triumph over the blindness of darkness was witnessed at the Rialto theatre yesterday afternoon in the showing of the "eighth wonder of the world" in "Deliverance." It is a true picture of the famous woman's life from childhood to womanhood, with the various stages of her progress depicted by children and girls of various ages. In the closing chapters Miss Keller, as she is today, is seen and this feature gives the true aspect of the starting claims of Miss Keller's early life. In addition to the picture, "Deliverance," the Rialto also showed Hobart Bosworth and Anna Q. Nilsson in "The Brute Master," an appealing story of South Sea life, a Hank Mann comedy, "Way Out West," the last episode of "The Third Eye" and the Fox News. The entire program has unusual drawing power and exceeds any that the Rialto has shown for months.

In addition to Miss Keller's appearance, the picture "Deliverance" introduces Mrs. Anne Sullivan (Macy) who has been a life long companion to the wonder woman and who alone is responsible for her mastery over the power of speech and blindness. Without her Miss Keller would undoubtedly have grown up in ignorance of the things which would not have attained the high social and educational attainments that she has today.

The picture "Deliverance," the name of which is suggestive of the truth of the story, opens in Tuscon, Ala. Miss Keller's home and gives the delight of her first steps in the world of childhood. Then comes a dreaded sickness which left the child blind and deaf and without the power of speech. Doctors said the case was hopeless and never to develop. Little Etta Ross depicts the life of the early Helen Keller.

And so the child grew up. She was the trouble maker, the one who was hood, fighting, clawing and kicking as a being without sense and reason until one day Anne Sullivan (Macy) came.

250 STUDENTS STRIKE

Sophomores at St. John's College Refuse Compromise Relative to Hazing

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 16.—Refusing to accept a compromise offered them by the board of visitors and governors of St. John's college, relative to the hazing of freshmen, the sophomore class walked out in a body yesterday and was followed by the junior, senior and freshmen classes, about 250 students in all.

The trouble started a short time ago, when the sophomore class drew up a resolution relative to hazing and was ordered by the board to retract it by Nov. 13, under pain of expulsion. The students demanded the appointment of a new board and a new commandant.

St. John's is a military college and has supplied many men as officers in the regular army and marine corps. It is the third oldest college in the United States, having been founded in 1656 as King William's school. Francis Scott Key, author of "The Star Spangled Banner" was a graduate of the institution.

SALE OF MEN'S SUITS AT $16.50 EXPLAINED

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—The mystery of 2900 men's suits, said ordinarily to wholesale at $45.70, which were placed on sale at the United National Clothiers' convention here last week at $16.50, was explained yesterday by E. C. Hermestrom, auditor of the association, who said they came from a Chicago manufacturer who "needed the money and wanted to unload."

He declared he knew the suits cost the manufacturer $18.50 for workmanship alone, exclusive of materials. A statement quoting W. L. Mohr, secretary of the association, regarding the suits, which received wide publicity, has brought dozens of telegrams asking proof of the prices. Mr. Hermestrom said:

he declared. "We have samples of these suits right here in our trunks. We had these suits at our convention and we sold them. It was merely a case of a manufacturer wanting to unload. He needed the money. He is a reputable manufacturer here in Chicago. We had other suits from two reputable Rochester houses—all wool suits that formerly sold for $24. They were sent to the convention priced at $25 and two days before the convention was over we got a wire cutting them to $22."

Mr. Hermestrom explained that "of course we do not claim" to sell suits of widely advertised standard brands at these prices, "but they are good, all wool clothes that actually cost the manufacturer more to make than he is selling them for."

PRE-WAR PRICES NOT TO RETURN

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 16.—Doubt that any big price declines will come soon and that prices ever will reach pre-war levels, was expressed by Senator W. M. Calder, of New York, chairman of the senate committee on reconstruction and production, which met here yesterday, to investigate housing conditions in Colorado.

"Wherever we have gone," Senator Calder said, "there seems to be a fairly general opinion that prices on building materials eventually must decline. The committee so far has found a decline in only one building material, lumber."

"As long as the government's great loans are out, labor is opposed to reduction in wages and the employer is opposed to reductions of his prices. I don't see much hope for heavy declines immediately and it is doubtful if prices ever will attain their pre-war basis."

PRIZE NAVAL ESSAY ON "LEADERSHIP"

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—An enlisted man in the navy ranked on a level with two captains, a Junior Lieutenant and an ensign when the officers laid aside their swords and took up the proverbial mightier pen to compete for Admiral H. B. Wilson's prize for an essay on "Leadership." It was announced here yesterday.

The announcement of awards showed Herman Earle Burt of Wellsburg, N. Y., yeoman, first class, serving on the flagship Pennsylvania, to be one of five who received honorable mention.

The $500 prize was won by Commander R. C. Parker of the battleship Kansas, but every officer and Jack in the Atlantic fleet showed greatest interest in yeoman Burt's success in the competition.

Burt is 25 years old, enlisted in the naval reserve force in 1917, and last year enlisted in the regular navy.

TO ORGANIZE WHEAT GROWERS

FARGO, N. D., Nov. 16.—If every farmer in the wheat belt would hold his wheat for 20 days the price would go nearly to $3 a bushel and would remain high, Abe Slaughter, national organizer for the Wheat Growers' Association of America, told grain growers here yesterday.

He is here at the head of a delegation of seven Oklahoma farmers to organize wheat growers of North Dakota.

More than 70 per cent of the available new water-power in the United States is west of the Mississippi.

HELPLESS WITH RHEUMATISM

Not an Ache or Pain Now

Another remarkable recovery from chronic Rheumatism of the joints and muscles is that of our local townsman, Mr. W. H. Scroggs. Mr. Scroggs says: "After all that Neutrone Prescription 99 has done for me, I feel the facts should be known to the public in order that other sufferers may take heart and try Neutrone Prescription 99."

"While working for Dodge Bros., Detroit, I suddenly became all crippled up with rheumatism. It started in my hips, went down into my legs, knees and feet. They were swollen to almost double size. "I had to stop work. I tried doctors and numerous cures, but I grew worse all the while."

W. H. Scroggs

Had to Be Fed With a Tube.

"On invitation of a cousin, I came East, thinking a change of climate would make a difference. Instead of improving, I rapidly became worse; the Rheumatism spreading to my mouth and face, and also both arms becoming absolutely useless so that my wife had to feed me with a glass tube. My future looked dark, as the Eastern doctors and medicines had no more effect than those of Detroit."

"All the while my cousin had been urging me to try 'Neutrone Prescription 99', as it had cured him of a bad attack of Rheumatism when he had been in bed for five weeks. Finally to please him and with little faith that anything could help me, I commenced taking 'Neutrone Prescription 99', and it hardly seemed possible, but after the first day I commenced to improve and could see big changes for the better."

Claims Prescription 99 Cured Him.

"It seemed just like a miracle; aches and pains disappeared; the swellings went down and my twisted hands and feet straightened out as if by magic. After three bottles I was practically cured, but I used two more to entirely rid my system of all rheumatic poisons."

"Two weeks after I commenced to take 'Neutrone Prescription 99', I started to work as a machinist, and have been working steadily ever since, and my health was never so good."

"I cannot say enough in praise of '99'. In fact I feel so grateful that I want every sufferer from this dreaded disease to know that 'Neutrone Prescription 99' will bring them relief, and you may use my endorsement in any manner you think best to induce others to try '99' and experience its benefits."

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easily and cheaply made at home, but best for all quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using the well-known old recipe for making cough syrup at home. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex from any druggist, pour it into a pint bottle and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its healing effect on the membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Compulsory Military Training in France

PARIS, Nov. 16.—The French cabinet today approved in principle measures calling for 18 months compulsory military service. The reduction of the term is not to be immediately applicable. It is to become effective after an indeterminate period, the length of which will depend upon the foreign situation and the state of the national defense. Andre Lefevre, the minister of war, indicated his desire to resign when the cabinet opposed his view that the 18 months' term of service should not be considered now. He had favored the two year term. Premier Leygues, however, advised him to remain.

the court. She seemed to be rather a slight, frail woman. She appeared, however, to start the cross-examination by Attorney Lewis with fortitude. At times her answers gave the impression of being sharp and to the point. They occasionally raised a smile. A few times during the morning she leaned forward on the witness stand and placed her face in her hands, apparently to think. This seemed to be when she thought it necessary to reflect before answering a question.

Miss Puffer On Stand

At the opening of the session of the court Miss Mabel E. Puffer was recalled to the stand. Judge John H. Maloney, counsel for the complainant, offered as evidence statements, from savings banks showing the withdrawal of money from the accounts of Miss Puffer.

Miss Puffer told of the withdrawal of her money. She said she gave it to Mr. McKee, the Christian Science practitioner, who was in the likeness of Hazzard. She said McKee, in the likeness of Hazzard, and Hazzard's mother, gulse of McKee, bought an engagement ring for me in Concord, N. H.

"In the Likeness of Hazzard"

Witness said Mr. McKee, in the likeness of Hazzard, and a number of his friends went to Concord.

Witness stated that Hazzard said to her "You've got your man," some time before they went to Concord and she considered they were engaged after that.

The witness throughout her testimony usually spoke of Hazzard as being McKee, or as McKee in the likeness of Hazzard.

The witness said she had been a member of the Christian Science church for three years. She told of boarding with Mrs. Hirsch, a Christian Scientist, in Harvard, after her father "passed on" in 1915. She testified regarding the payment of a board bill to Mrs. Hirsch, and said she had added $5000 to the amount on the receipt, after it was signed, at the suggestion of Hazzard. She said she regarded this as a "demonstration."

She told of giving her gold watches, gold pieces and a gold certificate to Hazzard.

The witness told of the alleged "wedding trip" to Concord. She said she went with McKee in the likeness of Arthur Garfield Hazzard. She said that Hazzard first engaged a respectable lodging place for them. Then they went to obtain a marriage license and they tried to find a minister to marry them.

In opting for the defense, W. H. Lewis, attorney for the defendants and also a defendant, asked Miss Puffer to identify a number of persons in the court room, which she did.

"Who is this man?" asked Mr. Lewis, placing his hand on the shoulder of Mr. Hazzard.

"Arthur Garfield Hazzard," was the reply.

She said that Hazzard had worked for her father.

"Did Mr. McKee work for your father?"

"I don't think he did."

In answer to questions by Mr. Lewis, the witness gave the names of many of her ancestors. She told of graduating from the Ayer high school in 1896, and said that she attended the Emerson School of Oratory and told of giving dramatic readings.

Know Their Names
She said she knew the names of Hazzard's mother and other members of his family and repeated them.

Witness was shown a statement that she had signed to the effect that she had made a present to Arthur G. Hazzard.

"Is there anything about McKee on that statement?" asked Mr. Lewis.

"Not in a material sense," answered the witness after careful study of the document. She called attention to a receipt dated July 14, 1919, and said the date should have been June 14, 1919, and that she was not permitted to see Hazzard after the trip to Concord.

A receipt for $44, alleged to have been paid to her by Hazzard for her house, was introduced. Witness said in answer to a question as to whether McKee had engaged in the chicken business, that he was engaged in everything in going to school all the time and that Hazzard's education might be greater than she knew. She said that she did not address Hazzard as McKee.

Mr. Lewis said to witness, "I have been fair to you, haven't I?"

"Yes," was the answer, "but I must wake up."

She spoke of "spiritual control" and "Holy Cross college."

She said she wrote the money receipts as they had been dictated to her by McKee in the person of Hazzard.

"I had no dealings with Arthur Garfield Hazzard," exclaimed the witness with emphasis.

"Did you give any money to this man?" asked Mr. Lewis with his hand on Hazzard's shoulder.

"I did to demonstrate a character," was the answer.

Witness said she had not paid any money to Hazzard for work done around the house, but she had paid it to McKee.

She said that some of the money paid to Hazzard had been spent for groceries "to demonstrate supplies."

She told of giving money to Hazzard to "demonstrate love in the father-mother God."

Hazzard's Seen Relatives
The witness said that she had seen little of her blood relatives—three nieces—during 1919. She denied that Hazzard had been at her house frequently but said that McKee had.

The witness said she had given Mrs. Hirsch about $1700. She said she (Miss Puffer) was an only child and that she had inherited all of her father's estate.

The witness said she never talked of marriage with Arthur Garfield Hazzard.

"Did you ever talk of marriage with this man?" asked Mr. Lewis, pointing to Hazzard.

"I never did."

"Who is this man?"
"Arthur Garfield Hazzard."

Witness described her "wedding trip" by trolley and train to Concord, N. H.

"Were you with this man?" asked Mr. Lewis, placing his hand on Hazzard's shoulder.

"No, I was with Mr. McKee in the likeness of Arthur Garfield Hazzard."

Witness denied emphatically that she had made the trip to Concord with Hazzard. She said that when she gave her age as 49, when a marriage license was applied for, that she told the truth. She said that Hazzard gave his name as Arthur Garfield Hazzard, but that it was not his name.

She told of talking with members of the Hazzard family and reporters in Concord about her prospective marriage.

"Did you mention McKee?"

"No, it was not necessary for the whole world to know about it."

Witness said she could not remember saying in the police station in Ayer she was "ready to marry McKee" Hazzard if he wanted her. She gave as a reason for not mentioning McKee that she didn't think it right, "from a spiritual standpoint," to drag him into it. She said it was a "spiritual demonstration of marriage." She said she had discussed the possibility of children with McKee.

She said her friends were willing that she should marry McKee, but that they objected to her marrying him in the likeness of Hazzard.

The witness said that she thought the money mentioned on the receipt given to Mrs. Hirsch might have been "Christian Science money" or "spiritual money."

She said that McKee had told her to add the $5000 to the Hirsch receipt after it had been signed. She said she did not think this was wrong because "the mind of God's child can reflect no wrong."

In answer to Mr. Lewis' questions the witness admitted that she considered McKee as "her Sir Galahad," "the man of her dreams" and that she was in love with him.

SHALL JAPAN

Question to Be Discussed at Meeting at Tokio
Tonight

Students' Societies of Three of Tokio's Private Universities to Attend

TOKIO, Nov. 16.—(By Associated Press)—The students' societies of three of Tokio's private universities, have organized a meeting to be held tonight to discuss the question "Shall Japan Fight America?" The police have twice summoned committeemen from the students and tried unsuccessfully to persuade them to change the subject. The present arrangements are that the meeting will be held, with many student orators participating. Applications to speak have been received from labor and socialist representatives and members of patriotic societies.

Forecasts of the probable character of the utterances indicate that the majority of the orators are expected to take a bellicose view.

The anti-ministerial press today prints attacks upon Premier Hara's recent speech on the international situation. The Yomiuri Shimbun declares the premier's statement that the Americans never violated Japan's rights to be untrue.

The Kokumin Shimbun questions the premier's statement that anti-Japanese feeling is confined to California. It asserts that it is becoming nation-wide, the causes being the American supposition that Japan is an "eastern Germany," and the misunderstanding of her policy towards Shantung, Korea and Siberia.

RED CROSS CAMPAIGN

Teams Slow in Making Reports But Big Rush Expected Later On

There is still another week and a half before the Red Cross membership drive is brought to a close and to this fact the local directors of the drive point in assigning a reason for the slowness of teams making reports. Enthusiasm in the drive has not died down, however, because it is believed that the various teams of the city have signed up many members and have not made official reports to Red Cross headquarters at 51 Merrimack street. The first returns made by any of the teams were completed late yesterday afternoon, but they showed that in many instances all the members were not ready to send in reports. The report mentioned showed that 907 memberships had been already received with Team G, captained by Henry H. Harris, having 153 members, the largest total. From other sources in the city comes the report that several business offices have been signed up 100 per cent strong and Superintendent Welch of the police department stated that the Chinese of the city have also signed up 100 per cent.

The first team to report is Reading. Last Sunday afternoon for a period of two hours an intensive campaign was carried on there with the result that over 1000 members were obtained. Two districts of the town were canvassed. Dr. M. E. Brande is chairman of the reading committee and his method of leading leading was to divide into teams with a team for each section. Other towns, with the exception possibly of Stoughton, are not divided into

HOLY CROSS COLLEGE FUND CAMPAIGN

A meeting of all the members of the Lowell committees in charge of the Holy Cross college building fund drive will be held in the Washington club this evening at 8.30 o'clock. At this time further reports as to subscriptions received will be made and it is expected that the present amount subscribed in this city will be greatly increased. It was thought at first that the committees would have to stage a drive to house to house canvass but voluntary contributions have been coming in so fast that it is thought such a method will be unnecessary. The campaign managers state that Lowell's quota will be subscribed easily and that other cities throughout the country are responding in a like manner.

CANADIAN GROWN WHEAT IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—Every bushel of wheat of contract grade in Chicago public elevators is Canadian-grown except 2000 bushels, according to official figures made public here today. The total stock is only 56,000 bushels. The supply decreased 168,000 bushels in the last week.

Lack of accumulation of stocks of western wheat is general and in this connection the present small movement from the hands of farmers is attracting special attention.

FOUL PLAY SUSPECTED

Autopsy Today on Body of Man Found in Doorway
Yesterday

An autopsy was performed today by Medical Examiner T. B. Smith, assisted by Doctors William F. Ryan and James P. Loughran, on the body of John J. Cahill, who was found in a pool of blood in a doorway in Central street early yesterday morning. The result of the autopsy was a report to the effect that death was due to a fracture of the skull.

The doctors did not find any traces of alcohol in his system, a fact that tends to disprove the theory that death was due to a fall. The report of the autopsy, submitted to the chief of police by the medical examiner, rather opens the way for suspicion of foul play and the investigation is to be continued. It has been suggested that the man might have been hit by an automobile and put in the doorway, out of sight. The body was first discovered by a milkman who notified a policeman. The body was then taken to the police station and the man was found to have been dead when found by the milkman. He carried a gold watch and had about $10 in his pockets, a fact, the police say, that eliminates the theory of robbery. The case is a mystery and will be thoroughly investigated.

LOCAL GREEKS AWAIT OFFICIAL RETURNS

Owing to the fact that the votes of thousands of Greek soldiers, who are now located in Asia Minor, have not yet been counted, members of the local Greek community do not expect final official returns of last Sunday's election before tomorrow night or Thursday.

One of the community members stated this morning that as far as he can learn, the local Greek-speaking people are about evenly divided, relative to party affiliations, but they are willing to abide with the decisions of their brethren in their native land. This man said if Gounaris is chosen by the people as premier of Greece it will mean that within a short time there will be another election, for it is understood that if Gounaris is elected, he will call a special election to determine whether or not the former King, Constantine, should return to the throne, while if Venizelos is the choice of the voters, the hopes of Constantine to return to Greece are forever abandoned.

"We Greeks in America," he said, "are interested in the election across the water, but we are not losing sleep over it, but in our spare moments we discuss the probabilities of this man or that man being elected. Of course there are some who are very deeply interested in the outcome of last Sunday's election, but all are willing to abide with the choice of those abroad."

All Danger of Encroachment

GENEVA, Nov. 16.—(By Associated Press)—All danger that the assembly of the League of Nations may encroach upon the Monroe Doctrine by considering American questions in the absence of the United States has been averted by the withdrawal of a request by Bolivia and Peru for revision of treaties with Chile.

It is not expected that any other American questions with dangerous possibilities will come before the present session of the assembly.

Six committees, charged with dealing with all questions on the agenda, began work today. Each committee has 41 members, all the nations having delegates at the meeting here being represented.

South American delegates have agreed the League of Nations should do all it can to get the United States to become a member nation.

South American delegates have agreed the League of Nations should do all it can to get the United States to become a member nation.

Argentina is regarded as a strong candidate for representation on the council of the league, the four elective members of which will be chosen by the assembly after receiving the report of the committee on general organization.

The report of the council on the work that had been done since the league was organized, was taken up by the delegates after some preliminary matters had been disposed of, chiefly completion of organization of the committee.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—(By Associated Press)—Consideration of the Tacna-Arica dispute among Chile, Peru and Bolivia by the League of Nations would not be regarded by the American government as an encroachment of the league on the Monroe Doctrine, according to state department officials.

The administration's attitude with respect to the Monroe Doctrine has been based upon the literal interpretation providing against any territorial aggression in South America.

CITY PRIMARIES

Polls Will Be Open From
Noon to 9 P. M.

The polls will be open from 12 noon to 9 p. m. on city primaries day, next Tuesday, Nov. 23. It was voted by the election commission today.

This is in accordance with the custom of past years. The municipal council has received a petition from Fred G. Leary, one of the candidates for alderman, asking that the polls be kept open from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m. as on state election day this year, but upon investigation it is found that the city charter prevents such extension of the hours.

Section 7 of the charter provides that "at every preliminary election the polls shall be opened at twelve o'clock and shall not be closed before eight o'clock in the evening."

Thus, it is possible to extend the hour of closing the polls—and this has already been done—but they must not be opened before noon, if the charter is to be lived up to.

Gounaris Forces Surprised at

sult Shock to Allies

ATHENS, Nov. 16.—Premier Venizelos' cabinet resigned early today, and Admiral Coundouriotis, the regent of Greece, has sent for Demetrios Rhallis, to whom it is expected, will be entrusted the formation of a new ministry.

The complete victory of the opposition seemed almost certain last night, although final results were still lacking. Even leaders of the elements opposed to Premier Venizelos, in the elections held on Sunday, were surprised by the showing their candidates had made in Macedonia and Attica.

It is said Mr. Venizelos will leave the country and he has advised liberals to abide by the verdict of the people.

Demetrios Gounaris, leader of the opposition, has declared the foreign policy of Greece will not be changed.

Latest returns from the election give the supporters of Venizelos 118 deputies against 250 royalists. Venizelos and all but two of his ministers were beaten. None of the Venizelist candidates was elected in Greece and Macedonia, with the exception of Epirus and the Aegean islands.

Two persons were killed by shots fired from houses facing the foreign office yesterday. It was declared that reactionary elements were responsible for the firing. Armed police rushed to the scene and a lively fusillade resulted.

Fear Panic in Athens

LONDON, Nov. 16.—George Rhallis, former Greek premier and minister of finance, has been asked by the regent to form a cabinet succeeding that of Eleftherios Venizelos, says a Reuters' despatch from Paris. Rhallis is 50 years old and his last public office was that of minister of finance in the Zaimis cabinet in 1918.

The bourse at Athens has been closed because of the fear of a panic, it is said.

Great Shock to Allies

PARIS, Nov. 16.—With the defeat of Premier Venizelos regarded by the French foreign office as certain, it is held the position of France and Great Britain with regard to former King Constantine is clearly against his return and that both powers are determined to do everything possible to prevent it.

Great Britain and France, it is indicated, will act together, but will avoid some indication of Constantine's intention to return. Should that be manifested they will then do whatever may be necessary.

It was declared today at the foreign office that France would take all possible steps to keep the ex-king out of the throne.

"The defeat of Premier Venizelos," a foreign office statement said, "may be termed a display of gross ingratitude by the Greeks for the man who brought the country to the allied side and greatly increased its size, power and influence, and this view is DAYTON, Ohio, Nov. 16.—Captain R. W. He will return to his home in Chicago, where he will re-enter business after having served four years in the army.

Early this year he broke the single man altitude record by gaining a height of nearly six miles, when his oxygen supply gave out. His plane fell almost five miles before he became conscious and recovered control.

Three U. S. Destroyers Ar-

With Refugees

LONDON, Nov. 16.—General Baron Wrangel, head of the South Russian government, whose army had been virtually wiped out by the Bolshevik offensive in Crimea, left Sebastopol on a Russian cruiser filled with soldiers, says a Constantinople despatch to the Exchange Telegraph company. The cruiser was accompanied by three transports carrying 23,000 troops and another carrying wounded men, the fleet sailing for an unknown port.

Russian soviet forces had not reached Sebastopol before the city was evacuated, it is said. The United States destroyers Humphreys, Whipple and Edwards, arrived at Constantinople with refugees yesterday.

Although the admiralty has issued no orders to the commanders of the British warships in the Black sea, except carefully to observe strict neutrality, it was officially stated today that British ships would assist in rescuing non-combatants if they were really in danger.

The question of rescue work is left to the discretion of the officers on the spot.

No troops will be transported under any circumstances, it was added.

Views of French Government

PARIS, Nov. 16.—The defeat of Gen. Wrangel, whose South Russian government had been recognized by France, does not mean that France is ready to consider recognition of the Russian soviet government, it is said at the foreign office.

The French government is "nervous" regarding any further military movements in Russia at present, not seeing where any basis can be found for reorganization of the fruitless effort against the Moscow government made by General Wrangel from the Crimea.

General Wrangel himself, the foreign office advised said, had either arrived at Constantinople on board the Russian cruiser Korniloff or was on the way to that city.

Threaten Reprisals

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 16.—(By Associated Press)—The French admiral of the Black sea forces sent a wireless to the Bolsheviks after the evacuation of Sebastopol by General Wrangel's troops threatening reprisals if the town were looted or the population molested.

A panic is reported to have occurred at Yalta during the evacuation and remarkable scenes were witnessed in Sebastopol and Feodosia.

PEACE TIME WORK BY LOCAL RED CROSS

Two interesting cases handled by the Red Cross were cited at headquarters this morning as characteristic of the work the organization is doing in peace time. The case in question dealt with the immigration to this country of an 18-year-old boy and two girls, all of whom are now living in this city with relatives through the efforts of the Red Cross.

Miss Caroline Brown, Miss Ruth Guesenheimer and Miss Helen Novell of the local department handled the local details of the cases and to them goes much of the credit for bringing the boy and girls to this country safely through the red tape and restrictions presented by fraudulent ticket agents and by the laws enforced by foreign governments during and after the war.

An 18-year-old boy lived with his family at Constantinople. His mother was living. His father had died and his brother, who had come to this country to better himself, had served in the U. S. army and was making a good living. The 18-year-old boy wanted to come to this city to live with his brother. The brother sent sufficient money to Constantinople for passage to this country, but some cheating ticket agent sold the boy a ticket which was good only as far as Marseille, France. Here the boy became stranded without a penny. The Red Cross

Controversy Ends With Tele-

Trouble Started Over Appli-

Cable at Miami

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 (by Associated Press)—The long standing controversy between the state department and the Western Union Telegraph company reached the stage of an open break, the company refusing to handle any further cable messages for the department, except upon payment of tolls.

The company's order was issued on Nov. 10. It was said today at the department, and ostensibly was to apply to all departments of the government. It was understood, however, that messages sent by other departments had been excepted informally from the ruling.

The Western Union Co. is stated to have based its action on the delay by the department in making payments on cable messages previously handled. Government officials asserted today, however, that it was their opinion a step in retaliation for the failure of the department to permit the landing of a cable at Miami, Fla., connecting at Barbados with a British cable from South America.

CENTRAL BRIDGE

Work On Repairs to Begin in Day or Two

Although the municipal council at its meeting this morning failed to take action relative to the repair of the Central bridge, which has been closed to electric cars and other heavy traffic since last Thursday, actual work on putting the structure in shape for such traffic during the winter months will in all probability begin within a day or two.

Mayor Perry D. Thompson, Commissioner Dennis A. Murphy, of the highways department, and City Engineer Stephen Kearney were waiting today for the appearance of F. B. Walker, engineer of the ways and maintenance department of the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway company to approve the plan of temporary repairs which had been outlined by local city and railway officials at a conference yesterday afternoon. He was expected from Fall River late this afternoon and as soon as his O. K. is given to the plans, work will begin.

When asked today where the money is coming from to meet the expense of repairing the bridge, Mayor Thompson said that it would have to be taken from the maintenance appropriation of the street department. Temporary repairs, as planned at the present time, will not cost more than $10,000, he believes.

There is now left about $25,000 of the maintenance appropriation in Mr. Murphy's department and it is probable

REGISTRATION FOR CITY PRIMARIES

The election commissioners wound up their pre-primaries registration sessions yesterday with a heavy enrollment of new voters. A total of 367 names were added to the check list, 271 of them being women and 96 men.

There will be no more registration before the city primaries next Tuesday and only one more period of enrollment before the city election on Dec. 11. This final session will be on Wednesday, Nov. 24, the day after the primaries. Registration will continue on that date from 12 noon to 10 p. m. and will be the last session of 1920.

Yesterday's session was continuous from 2 to 9 p. m.

By wards, the enrollment was as follows:

Men—Ward 1, 4; ward 2, 12; ward 3, 10; ward 4, 2; ward 5, 4; ward 6, 24; ward 7, 13; ward 8, 19; ward 9, 7.

Women—Ward 1, 12; ward 2, 13; ward 3, 11; ward 4, 12; ward 5, 13; ward 6, 67; ward 7, 52; ward 8, 29; ward 9, 22.

A goodly portion of the steel for the third story has been put in place, while the brick work has reached the top of the second story. Carpenters are now laying the temporary floor on the second story and with good weather conditions prevailing, General Contractor Daniel Walker expects that within a short time the third story of the building, that is the exterior, will be completed. The building when finished will have four stories.

Mr. Walker is not expecting any trouble in securing the necessary help as to receives many applications for work. The job will be rushed along until extreme cold weather sets in and then activities may be shifted to the interior of the building.

Over and over again, Miss Mabel Emmeline Puffer, of Ayer, as a witness in the superior court today, referred to the former suitor for her hand, with whom she went to Concord, N. H., last June, for the purpose of contracting a marriage, as "Charles McKee in the likeness of Arthur Garfield Hazzard." There were references during Miss Puffer's testimony to "spiritual love," "spiritual marriage," and "spiritual money." She said that she had given money to McKee, "in the likeness of Hazzard" to demonstrate love. She asserted Hazzard had proposed marriage to her saying, "now you have got your man."

The testimony was given during the progress of the suit brought in behalf of Miss Puffer, now a patient in the Worcester State hospital for the insane, to recover money and property alleged to have been transferred to Hazzard, and by him partially transferred to other persons. W. H. Lewis, of Boston, and Cornelius J. (Neil) of Lowell, attorneys, are among the defendants named in the case.

SEARCH FOR BODY OF MRS. WHITNEY

LANGDON, N. H., Nov. 15.—The search for the body of Mrs. Blanche W. Whitney, second wife of the man who at different times in his life has been known as Arthur C. Doolittle, William B. Whitney, and William B. Clark, was transferred today from the farm here on which the Whitneys had lived to an abandoned one nearby which Whitney owned. In a wall there, long in disuse, because of an unpleasant odor to the water, county officials said they were prepared to find the body of the woman who disappeared four years ago.

The information on which the authorities changed their well-digging operations from the Whitney farm to the abandoned place was understood to have come from two sons of the prisoner. First steps in the inquiry as to the fate of Mrs. Whitney were taken as a result of stories told by another son, John.

NEWS OF THE DAY IN POLICE COURT

Mary Parkhurst and Josephine Roy, two employees of the Tremont & Suffolk mills had a little argument while at their work a few days ago and it is claimed that in the course of the argument Mary struck Josephine and as a result Mary was arraigned in police court this morning on a charge of assault and battery. A plea of not guilty was entered but after hearing the evidence Miss Honor found otherwise and imposed a fine of $10.

William Brown was charged with the larceny of 18 bushels of potatoes, 4 bushels of turnips and 25 empty potato bags, the property of Herman S. Wilbur. Brown denied the guilt. In the course of the trial it was brought out that Brown, who is a truckman, was hired by Wilbur to truck the potatoes and turnips to this city from Vermont. It is claimed that there was a misunderstanding relative to the cost of the trucking, Wilbur refusing to pay the truckman, who, it is claimed, kept the goods, which he later sold. Probable cause was found and Brown was held for the grand jury.

The case of John Dirs, charged with the larceny of an overcoat was continued for a week. Walter Soppel was found guilty of operating a motor vehicle without a proper registration and his case was placed on file. Samuel Charette and Joseph Breton, charged with drunkenness, had their cases continued to the tomorrow morning because the police want to investigate the finding of an automobile in Andover street, which it is claimed was abandoned there by the two young men.

WORK PROGRESSING ON NEW HIGH SCHOOL

About 50 men are employed on the erection of the new high school building in Kirk street and the work is progressing rapidly. The progress of the work was marred to some extent some time ago by delays in the shipments of steel, but for the past few weeks shipments have been about normal and the big steel girders are being put in place practically as fast as they arrive.

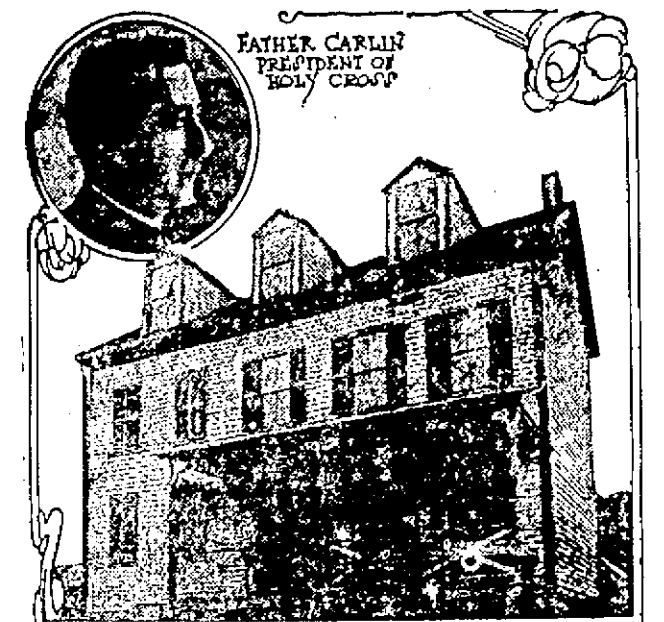

A goodly portion of the steel for the third story has been put in place, while the brick work has reached the top of the second story. Carpenters are now laying the temporary floor on the second story and with good weather conditions prevailing, General Contractor Daniel Walker expects that within a short time the third story of the building, that is the exterior, will be completed. APPEAL FROM WRANGEL

Nervous Breakdown

"I am so nervous it seems as though I should fly"—"My nerves are all on edge"—"I wish I were dead." How often have we heard these expressions or others quite as extravagant from some loved one who has been brought to this state by some female trouble which has slowly developed until the nerves can no longer stand up under it. No woman should allow herself to drift into this condition without giving that good old-fashioned root and herb remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

Read the Letters of These Two Women.

North East, Md.—"I was in ill health four or five years and doctored with one doctor after another but none helped me. I was irregular and had such terrible pain in my back, lower part of my body and down each side that I had to go to bed three or four days every month. I was very nervous, tired, could not sleep and could not eat without getting sick. A friend asked me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am sorry I did not take it sooner for it has helped me wonderfully. I don't have to go to bed with the pain, can eat without being sick and have more strength. I recommend your medicine and you are at liberty to publish my testimonial."—ELIZABETH WEAVER, R. R. 2, North East, Md.

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was run down and nervous, could not rest at night and was more tired in the morning than when I went to bed. I have two children, the youngest three months old and it was drudgery to care for them as I felt so irritable and generally worn out. From lack of rest and appetite my baby did not get enough nourishment from my milk so I started to give him two bottle feedings a day. After taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt like a new woman, full of life and energy. It is a pleasure to care for my children, and I am very happy with them and feel fine. I nurse my baby exclusively again, and can't say too much for your medicine."—Mrs. A. L. MILLER, 2633 E. 24th St., Minneapolis, Minn.

"Crimea, the last strip of Russia where the principles of truth, liberty and freedom prevailed, is being evacuated. The wounded, the children, the women and the sick will be evacuated first, because if left behind, their fate at the hands of the Bolsheviks would be frightful. Although saved from the Red barbarities, they are bound for an unknown destination, where they will be without the means of support, in a strange country.

"We do not know where they can find refuge; we can only beg help. Gen. Wrangel in his last order pointed out the real situation to all who desired to embark on the ships. He not only did not advise them to go, but warned them of the danger of going to an unknown destination. The good people of the civilized world will not permit the destruction of peoples who are not responsible for the events except through their reputation of atrocious barbarism. Our hopes will not be in vain that the powerful American people are in a position to help and know how.

"I am aware that America and the newly elected president are opposed to intervention in European politics. I am sure, however, of their readiness to contribute to philanthropic work not connected with politics. Whenever there is misery and calamity it is impossible not to meet the flag of the American Red Cross.

"We appeal to the noble Americans to stretch out a helping hand to the numberless unfortunates who lost everything and are embarking now on the cold high seas, going God knows where. Our only hope is in the American people who surely will not be deaf to this piteous appeal and will carry the undying gratitude of the Russian people."

U. S. Ships to Assist
WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—All available American warships in the Black Sea are to be used to assist refugees in leaving the Crimea in advance of the Bolshevik armies.

Authority for such use of the ships was given by the state and navy departments today, upon the urgent recommendations of Rear-Admiral McCully, commander of American warships in southern-Russian waters.

CUT SUIT PRICES 40 PER CENT

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 15.—Cuts in the wholesale prices of men's fall and winter suits ranging from 25 to 40 per cent were announced yesterday by 19 Rochester clothing manufacturers who are members of the National Association of Manufacturing Clothiers. Spring lines of the same manufacturers opened yesterday at prices 30 per cent lower than last year's prices.

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—Chicago bakers were summoned to city hall yesterday by Russell Poole, secretary of the council's high cost of living committee, and urged to reduce the price of bread from 15 cents for a pound loaf to 10 cents. Unless the request is complied with, Mr. Poole told the bakers, the city will launch a campaign advising housewives to resume home baking until the price comes down.

JURY RETURNS VERDICT
A verdict has been returned by a jury in the superior court in favor of the plaintiffs in the case of G. B. Wilkins vs. Mrs. Mary E. Wilkins, both of Wilmington, and Miss Alice Hawthorne, now in England, against Fred Ingham of Lowell. The suit was for the recovery of compensation for the sequestration of an automobile and personal injuries resulting from a collision between two cars on the state road near Wamecet station. The jury's verdict awarded compensation as follows: To G. B. Wilkins, $543; to Mary E. Wilkins, $500; to Miss Alice Hawthorne, $100.

CONDUCTOR FIRED FOR CRITICIZING ROAD

LAWRENCE, Nov. 15.—Conductor Patrick F. Ryan was yesterday discharged from the service of the Eastern Massachusetts street railway by Manager John H. Hayes of the Lawrence division of the road for disloyalty to the company and the public in that he did not do his best to further the best interests of the company and the public in his capacity as conductor.

Ryan is said to have claimed that the road was not only giving the public poor service, but was charging excessive fares and was cheating the city of Lawrence out of taxes. He made these charges yesterday at a meeting of the city council, saying that the valuation of the company's property had been increased only $400 the past year in spite of the fact that all other property valuations had gone up much higher.

He also said at this meeting that he knew he was slated for discharge and defied Homer Loring, one of the public trustees of the road, to "fire" him, remarking that in union there is strength.

Ryan has been in the employ of the road about two years, according to Manager Hayes, as a spare man. He lives in the Pleasant Valley section of Methuen.

Ryan has claimed that the road is charging excessive fares and that it hurt him every time he took up a fare, because he was sure that the public were paying altogether too much for the service they got.

John F. O'Brien, president of the Lawrence local of the Carmen's union, stated last night that the union would "look out" for Ryan.

When asked if that meant a strike, he said it did not, but that the union had an agreement with the road to arbitrate matters on which the employees and officials could not agree.

Lowell Man Involved in Fatal Automobile Accident is Exonerated By State Registrar of Motor Vehicles (Special to The Sun)

STATE HOUSE, Boston, Nov. 15.—Andrew D. Moynihan of 62 Royal street, who was involved in a fatal automobile accident September 18, has been exonerated by Frank A. Goodwin, state registrar of motor vehicles, and Moynihan's license, suspended immediately after the accident, has been returned to him.

Moynihan's accident resulted in the death of Francis Aubrey of Lowell, and as usual in such cases, the registrar suspended his license and began an investigation of the circumstances surrounding the accident. The investigation has been completed, and the registrar has entered a finding that in his opinion there was no serious fault on the part of Moynihan.

Brand New Schooner to Race Esperanto

HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 16.—The "blue ribbon of the seas" figuratively tacked to the mast of the Gloucester schooner Esperanto after her recent victory in the international fishermen's race here is to be sought by a brand new two sticker from Nova Scotia. This became known today, when announcement was made that W. J. Rous, a member of the Halifax sailing committee, was drawing plans for a semi-knockabout fishing schooner. Her keel is expected to be laid Dec. 1, and her builders hope she will slide into the water early in March. To qualify for the contest, the challenger will spend the full 1921 season on the fishing grounds.

AN OPEN LETTER*To The Voters of Lowell:—

One week from today, the primaries in our city elections are to be held.

To me, it seems the plain duty of every voter to show an active interest in the selection of candidates for the finals to be held in December.

Those who do not now interest themselves will have little right to criticize the administration of the men who take office—if there is any criticism. The burden of municipal government must rest squarely on all shoulders.

I am a candidate for commissioner of Lowell. As bearing on the question of my availability for such office, I desire to say that I was educated in the public schools of Lowell. I later attended and graduated from Dean Academy, and about 10 years ago I entered the dyeing business in my home city. The Bay State and Merrivale plants have since become important enterprises, carrying on business with many New England mills, and employing year in and year out a force of well satisfied men and women.

Our obligations as citizens do not end with the election of city officials, and our municipal obligations do not end with the maintenance of certain departments. A closer relationship between our citizens and our city government is needed. The civic spirit must be quickened. The city must grow through co-operation.

I seek your support for the office of commissioner on the broad ground of a pledged will to advance Lowell's general standing as a city.

BUDAPEST, Nov. 15.—Count Paul Teleky, prime minister of Hungary, announced in the assembly today that he had offered the cabinet's resignation to the regent, Admiral Nicholas Horthy, who declined to accept it. The cabinet was formed July 20, 1920.

LOWELL MAN WILL BE PRINCIPAL SPEAKER

Lawyer J. H. Guillet of this city will be the principal speaker at the public meeting, which will be held on the evening of Nov. 23, in Woonsocket, R. I., in observance of the golden jubilee of Monsignor Charles Douray, pastor of the church of the Precious Blood at Woonsocket. Lawyer Guillet will attend the festivities as the president of the Federation of Franco-American Catholic societies of the United States.

The celebration will begin in the morning with a solemn high mass of thanksgiving in the church of the Precious Blood, which will be celebrated by Mgr. Douray. In attendance at the service will be His Eminence Cardinal Begin of Quebec, Bishop Emard of Valleyfield, Bishop Bruneau of Nicolet, Bishop Gauthier of Montreal, and the bishops of Providence, R. I., Hartford, Conn., and Burlington, Vt., as well as numerous priests from various centers of New England. At the close of the mass Mgr. Douray will be presented on address by members of his parish and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon dinner will be served to the invited guests, the festivities to be presided over by Cardinal Begin. The speakers at the dinner will be Gov. Sanson of Rhode Island, ex-Gov. Aram J. Pothier, Mayor Souci of Woonsocket; Elie Vezina of Woonsocket, secretary-general of l'Union St. Jean Baptiste d'Amerique; Dr. A. E. Brien of Manchester, N. H., president of the Canada-American society, and others.

The celebration will be brought to a close with a public meeting in the evening, which will be presided over by Cardinal Begin, the principal speaker to be Lawyer J. H. Guillet of this city. The other speaker will be Henri T. Ledoux of Nashua, N. H., president general of l'Union St. Jean Baptiste d'Amerique.

Y. M. C. I. CARNIVAL WILL OPEN TOMORROW

Arrangements have been completed for the opening of the big Y.M.C.I. carnival in the institute building in Jackson street tomorrow evening. From present indications, the occasion will mark the beginning of one of the most successful events of its kind ever held here.

The carnival will continue three evenings, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday and the receipts will become a part of the Y.M.C.I. new building fund. It is the ambition of the Belvidere organization to erect a modern, fully equipped home where young men of the city may have every opportunity for physical and intellectual advancement, for companionship and for relaxation from the duties and cares of everyday activity.

The committee in charge of the carnival has encompassed within the scope of its arrangements everything that a most enterprising vaudeville manager would include in a year's bill. There will be entertainment ga-lors every evening, different artists appearing each night. There will be dancing on the smooth Y.M.C.I. hall with three orchestras furnishing music. Downstairs there will be pool and bowling, ball throwing games, contests for dolls, candy and cigars. The carnival committee has termed the affair "a whizz-bang of joy" and that describes it effectively and well. Only a nominal admission fee is to be charged and there is every indication that the cozy quarters of the institute will be packed every evening of the carnival.

SAYS INDIANS ABUSED

Sweeping Criticism of Administration of Office of Indian Affairs by Sloan

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 16.—Sweeping criticism of the administration of the office of Indian Affairs and charges that Indians have been subjected to abuses, including unlawful seizure and leasing of property by agents of the government, were made by Thomas J. Sloan of Washington, D. C., president of the Society of American Indians, in his report at the annual conference of the organization here today.

The report also charges that legislation in the interest of the race was blocked in the last session of congress by the office of the commissioner of Indian Affairs.

"It is advised that as the wrongs have been inflicted by the present administration of Indian Affairs that will be terminated on the fourth day of March, 1921, we do not attempt to secure any relief from them but wait until we have a new administration to which we may make further complaints," the report states.

Land belonging to Crow Indians in Montana, has been leased by the reservation superintendent to a farming corporation, the report charges, and that of the Fort Belknap Indians given to the use of a cattle company.

"On the Pine Ridge Sioux reservation in South Dakota," it continued, "territory about 40 miles long and 20 miles wide was thrown open by the policy and order of the commissioner or assistant commissioner of Indian Affairs to the use of a cattle company."

All of the land was owned by Indians, the report explains, and much of it populated.

Some Indians were reduced to poverty and want by this action, according to the report.

Another charge in the report is that tribal herds were allowed to overrun the property of individual members of the Blackfoot and Crow tribes, destroying crops and that their stock was allowed to starve.

"Such Indians were thereby made destitute and now are in great need," the report says.

Indians have been arrested and imprisoned by agency officials, the report alleges, despite the fact there is no authority for such action.

It complained also that allotments have been held up.

MANY LOWELL PEOPLE ARE PRAISING TANLAC

Statement After Statement Being Made About Wonderful Results Secured From Master Medicine

One interesting statement after another is now being made about Tanlac, the medicine that is accomplishing such remarkable results in Lowell and vicinity. One of the latest to testify to the powers of the medicine is James Bratchell, an employee of the Hamilton mill, residing at 18 Ford street, Lowell, Mass. Mr. Bratchell, in relating his experience, says:

"For a number of years before taking Tanlac I was bothered with indigestion which kept on getting worse."

Indigestion was signed by the members of the council and referred to the secretary of the commonwealth.

The annual report of the law department for 1919, submitted by City Solicitor Wm. D. Regan, was accepted and placed on file.

Commissioner Salmon reported favorably on the petition of Harry C. Forrester for a garage and gasoline license at 25 Jackson street and the license was granted.

Commissioners Murphy and Marchand reported favorably on the following petitions and the accompanying orders were adopted.

Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Co., Lowell Electric Light Corporation and New England Telephone and Telegraph Co. poles; West Third street, between Fairmount and Hazel streets.

Lowell Electric Light Corporation, one pole in Albion street between West Third and West Fourth streets.

Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Co. and Lowell Electric Light Corporation, poles in Pawtucket street, near School.

To Use Clerk's Office.

A communication from the board of election commissioners, signed by J. Omar Allard, their clerk, was read, asking that the board be allowed to use the city clerk's office on the evening of the city primaries, Nov. 23, and the city election, Dec. 11.

Mayor Thompson thought the matter was one which came entirely within the jurisdiction of the commissioner of public property, Mr. Marchand, as the custodian of the building.

Mr. Marchand said that arrangements had been made to have the election commissioners use the old councilmanic chamber this year, but with the advent of the charter commission this was not found feasible.

He said he did not believe that it would be inconclusive for the city clerk to any great extent to have his office used on the two evenings mentioned and that next year the election officials would have the councilmanic chamber for their use.

The petition was referred to Mr. Marchand.

The city treasurer was authorized to have recorded correctly the grant whereby the proprietors of the Locks and Canals gave the city the land on which the old Bartlett school formerly stood.

The original grant, dated Dec. 20, 1832, has not been recorded properly as only three lines are specified.

The land has recently been sold and in order that the purchaser may have a clear title to it, it will be necessary to have the fourth boundary line recorded.

NEWSPAPER TELLS HOW BOY WAS SAVED FROM LUNG TROUBLE

Read what the Altoona Times-Tribune says about the case of Paul McCartney. Reporter interviewed his parents and saw the boy.

The story shown below is a news article, not advertising.

Altoona (Pa.) Times-Tribune, March 26, 1920

HEALTH COMES TO LAD THROUGH ADVERTISING

Despairing Parents, As the Last Resort, Choose Remedy Heard of Through This Newspaper—Boy Is Now Well and Robust

It would hardly occur to you that a miracle could be worked through advertising—one that saved to doing parents the life of their only son? Strange as it may seem, that is just exactly what has been accomplished in a specific instance right here in Altoona. We all have heard volumes about the value of advertising, but that the great results achieved by it, should save the almost sacred belief. However here are the facts in the case.

Paul McCartney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Beulah McCartney, residing at 2222 Walnut avenue, this city, and who on October 10 last, celebrated the 14th anniversary of his illness, took sick July, 1914. His illness rapidly assuming such a critical aspect that his life was in jeopardy. The parents in their frantic efforts to save his life, called in different medical practitioners and at different times had him admitted to both city hospitals.

DIAGNOSED TUBERCULOSIS. The malady was diagnosed by the physicians as tuberculosis and it was suggested that the parents keep the boy out of doors, day and night and feed him exclusively on milk and egg diet. In compliance, the parents had an army set placed on the back porch, had it properly screened and there, the sufferer reduced to a mere skeleton, lay day and night, his life ebbing.

From August 1 until October the patient was unable to take nourishment of any kind, except in occasional insignificant quantities sufficient to sustain the waning life. The stomach would not retain the food.

Finally, the attending physician told the despairing mother that the child could not live unless she gave him the milk emulsion. Fortunately Mrs. McCartney's father, A. T. King, residing at 2225 Fifth avenue, brought to his daughter a copy of the Altoona Times, containing an advertisement of Mils Emulsion. Nature's Remedy prepared and sold by The Mils Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind., and advised her to try it as a last resort.

EFFECT MARVELOUS. The effect was marvelous. In an interview granted to a Times Tribune reporter last evening, pursuant to an inquiry from the Mils Emulsion Co. to whom Mrs. McCartney had sent a letter of appreciation, she said that in three days after taking the remedy the boy was able to walk with her aid. After taking ten bottles, he was wholly restored to health. In substantiation of her story the reporter was shown a snap shot of Paul after he had used the emulsion three days—he was a mere bag of bones, his skin drawn tight over the bones.

Then, in contrast, the mother called to her son who was engaged in strenuous play on the street, and in came a lad, vibrant with health and cheeks glowing like the rose. All this in the space of a few weeks, a physician, "that he might as well take so much land," according to the mother's statement.

Mrs. McCartney sent her letter to the company in the hope that other mothers could learn of the remedy, what it did for her son, and perhaps receive from it the same invaluable boon. She called the attention of the reporter to a bottle of the emulsion which ever has the place of honor on the buffet, and to which she says, recourse is had every time any member of the family complains of not feeling well. Paul is attending school regularly, being enrolled at the Curtis High School. Mrs. McCartney is a well known machinist in the jewelry shops.

This news article from the Altoona Times-Tribune is reproduced by the Mils Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind.

Mils Emulsion is offered, on a liberal trial plan, to anyone suffering from stomach trouble, constipation, lack of flesh or appetite, stomach aches or the weakening effects of wasting diseases. Take 6 bottles and use it as directed. If not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 75c and $1.50 per bottle. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Strike of Students Continues

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 16.—The strike to the students of St. John's college, who left the institution in a body yesterday because of dissatisfaction with the governing board, continued today. "Inefficiency of the board of governors and visitors to satisfactorily adjust and direct the movements of the college," was given by the students as the reason for their action, in a communication to Acting President Rippey. The exact grievances were not stated. The board of governors and visitors will meet tonight, and according to its president, Judge Robert Moss, "will deal with the question expeditiously."

BENSON MAKES REPLY

Answers Shipping Board's
Critics—Says He'll Let No
Wrongdoers Escape

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 16.—(By Associated Press.)—Replying to critics of the Shipping Board and Emergency Fleet Corporation, near-Admiral W. B. Benson, chairman of the board, declared in an address here last night, before the South Atlantic Ports association, that the "new countrymen" could depend upon it that no wrongdoer connected with the board "will escape if his wrongdoing is called to my attention."

"Not only have I insisted upon the closest watch upon all matters," said Chairman Benson, "but I have followed the work of the Shipping Board in every port of the world with the one thought in mind that we are now reaching that crucial moment which spells either the success or failure of a permanent merchant marine."

"There is no effort on our part to shrink whatever responsibility we have assumed. We have insisted that at all times the records are open to the public. Every facility is offered to those who desire information."

"It is an easy matter for anyone to pick flaws in an organization like the Shipping Board. We had to train 300,000 shipbuilders and in the maiming of our ships we have had to train thousands of men."

"Of course, in an organization of this magnitude, you will find here and there evidences of wrongdoing and now and then you will uncover a systematic effort to defraud."

"If mistakes have been made," he said, "they were mistakes that naturally may be expected in such a stupendous enterprise, involving as it does the active employment of more than 1,000 sea-going vessels with the manifold problems involved in ship operation; the completion of a huge shipbuilding program embracing the payment of millions of dollars and the settlement of thousands of claims which come as a result of an effort to be fair to those men who, when we needed them, placed their facilities at our disposal and endeavored to do everything within their power to help this country in its shipbuilding program."

"We are not engaged in child's play; our effort is world-wide. Our work reaches into every part of the world. It affects every interest. It is your business to watch this development and to critically examine our work from day to day. It is your business to question what we do. It is a good thing that men are awakened to the splendid opportunity shipping affords, but while it is no child's play to build up this vast world-wide organization, I do say it is a child's play on the part of anyone who heedlessly spreads erroneous impressions which tend to destroy confidence in our ability to maintain, support and develop a permanent merchant marine, privately owned. All we ask is constructive criticism."

Appealed to President
NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Two witnesses told the congressional committee investigating the Shipping Board that they appealed to the White House.

Capt. William H. Chambliss, formerly master of the steamer Lake Ellwood, said he was "forcibly" removed from his ship by Rio Janeiro police at the instigation of the acting American consul, who was also agent of the Shipping Board, because he would not join in a scheme for "graft" and approve excessive bills for repairs to the ship. The acting consul, he said, was A. T. Huchler.

Capt. Chambliss testified that he called Sec. Tumulty, who did all he could when he laid the matter before John Barton Payne, then chairman of the board.

Charges against him and his first officer, he added, were brought by the consular agent through the state department and they were acquired by the Steamboat Inspection Service.

Charles A. Elliott, first mate of the vessel, corroborated the captain as to uncalculated-for repairs. The mate testified to overhearing the captain being offered a bribe to "lay down" on his objections to the repair bills.

The captain and mate came home as passengers on another ship, they testified.

The captain said that he was unable to obtain further employment as master of a Shipping Board vessel. The mate also testified that he had been "black-listed" by the board.

Thomas H. Purcell, who described himself as an expert riveter of the old school, said that in 1918, when he was

Keep Looking Young!

Mobey wants to grow old looking any faster than they can help; some look old at forty while others don't begin to show their age at seventy.

Everybody knows that to keep young looking you have first got to be blessed with good health, and second to do as little worrying as possible. Most of the ills that the flesh is heir to are caused by a disordered stomach, liver or kidneys. These can be regulated and kept in good condition by taking SEVEN BARKS, nature's great remedy of roots and herbs.

Digestive troubles also spoil beauty, rob you of sleep, make dark rings around the eyes and ruin the complexion. Let SEVEN BARKS digest your food and tone up your stomach, then you may eat what you like, bright eyes will soon return, and you will feel fit for your daily duties.

Science says that old age begins with weakened kidneys and digestive organs. If you keep these organs cleansed and in proper working order, old age can be deferred and life prolonged beyond the average age. No better remedy can be found than SEVEN BARKS to keep the stomach, liver and kidneys in good order, thus assuring you good health.

Old-fashioned nature's remedies are the best, so don't fail to keep a bottle of SEVEN BARKS on hand. Get it at your druggist's. Price, 60 cents.—Adv.

Inspector of hulls at the Submarine Boat Corporation, some of the riveting was "fierce."

When his complaints to his superior brought no results, he sent home defective rivets to President Wilson. He could not say if the president ever saw the evidence, but he did know he was "fired for sending it." "They gave me only just about enough time to get my clothes and get out of the yard," he said.

Later on, he said, the president answered his complaints through Sec. Tumulty. As a result he was reinstated as an inspector and given his back pay.

Chairman Walsh asked how it was that ships on which he charged poor riveting was done were still afloat, and the witness said he could not tell. He afterwards said that poor work might cause a ship to break down for four or five years. He challenged the committee to go with him to any ship they might name that was built during the war in some of the yards and he would point out to them evidence of poor work.

"FINDERS KEEPERS"

Judge Decides in Favor of
Boy Who Dug up Gold

NEWCASTLE, Ind., Nov. 16.—Ownership in gold found buried on a farm near Greensboro six months ago by Levi Todd, a 15-year-old boy, was settled yesterday in the circuit court here by Judge Gausso deciding that "finders are keepers."

While excavating for a basement under an old house young Todd drove his pick into an earthenware jar containing the money, and then there started a three-cornered fight for its ownership.

Mrs. Clara Freeman Vickery of this city claimed the money as part of her mother's estate, and John Hardin, present owner of the farm, sought an interest as owner of the land. The judge gave the money to the youthful finder, holding the evidence was insufficient to show Mrs. Vickery's mother had buried it, and that Mr. Hardin's ownership of the land did not give him ownership of the money, because he was ignorant of its existence.

MOVIE PROPRIETORS HELD FOR DEATHS

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The two proprietors and the doorman of the East Side motion picture house where six children were killed and 12 others injured in a needless panic Sunday night were held in $10,000 bail late yesterday for a hearing Friday.

They were arraigned earlier in the day on charges that they had failed to take proper precautions for safety; that an exit door was locked, and that they violated the law prohibiting the admittance to theatres of unaccompanied minors. The panic occurred when smoke from a furnace filled the theatre and caused a cry of "fire."

The 12 children injured last night were reported still in a serious condition.

FIRST SNOW OF SEASON IN BOSTON

BOSTON, Nov. 16.—The first snow flurries of the season which visited

Greater Boston yesterday are likely to prove forerunners of more snow in the next two days, for the official forecast predicts unsettled weather for today and tomorrow with either snow or rain and fresh north to northeast winds.

A disturbance, central last night over the Gulf of Mexico, is apparently moving northward, causing rain in the southeastern states and as far north as Atlantic City. Whether the precipitation from this disturbance will reach Boston as rain or snow is impossible to say yet, since the temperatures in this section are such as to make it just about on the border line between the two. In any event, no large amount, either of rain or snow, is anticipated.

Yesterday morning's minimum was 32, exactly at the freezing point, but the temperature rose to 42 before the day was over. At 8 last night the reading was 38, a good temperature either for rain or light snow.

FATHER OF THREE CHILDREN WRITES FROM PANAMA CANAL ZONE

Balboa, Canal Zone. A father of three children writes: "Will you kindly send me by mail two bottles of your Dr. True's Elixir. I cannot buy it here in Panama, and don't care to be without it in the house, because I have three children, and the Elixir is the best family remedy I ever used. When one of the children isn't feeling right, I give him a dose of Dr. True's Elixir and he comes out hale and hearty in the morning. Our children have shown no signs of worms since they have taken the Elixir. Last summer one of our boys was very sick, but one small bottle of your Elixir did him in fine shape." E. H. Dunnington.

The prescription, Dr. True's Elixir (the Family Laxative and Worm Expeller) has done wonders for sick people, men, women and children. No harmful drugs—works quickly and effectively.—Adv.

WOMEN OWE LIVES TO POLICEMAN

BROCKTON, Nov. 16.—To the alertness of Policeman George Dean two Camello women owe their lives. Noticing the motionless body of a woman at a lodging house window shortly after midnight, while patrolling his beat, Dean started an investigation. Entering the house he found it filled with gas fumes. He discovered Mrs. Myra Nelsh overcome in a chair and another woman on the floor. He sent in an emergency call and several officers and a doctor responded. They worked over the women, who were revived within a short time. A third person, sleeping near an open window, was unaffected.

MUSICAL APPRECIATION

Irish folk songs, sung by Miss Frances Porter, a student at the Normal school, were a feature of the session last evening of the class in musical appreciation being conducted by Miss Lue Field Damon at the Community Service club. The songs were "The Red Haired Girl," "My Thousand Times Beloved" and "In the Foggy Dew." They were arranged by Milligan Fox, who spent considerable time in Ireland familiarizing himself with the songs of the people. The accompaniments are arranged for the harp. Miss Damon's lecture was devoted to an exposition of the music to be played at the concert in Lowell next Monday evening of the Boston Symphony orchestra. She gave sketches of the lives of the composers whose works are to be played, and told of characteristics of their work. Graphophone records of the music were played.

WILL OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

A banquet, post prandial exercises and general dancing will mark the observance of the 221 anniversary of the founding of the Father, Mother, Total Abstinence Society in North Andover Thursday evening. The principal speaker at the exercises will be Probation Officer Edward F. Slattery, of this city, founder of the society. The affair will be for members of the society and their wives and lady friends.

BILLERICA NEWS

Acting under instructions given at the last special town meeting, Moderator Charles H. Fames of Billerica has appointed the members of the board of selection on a special committee to appraise the land damages to the John H. Foster estate near the new bridge over the Concord river in North Billerica. About 12,000 square feet of land owned by this estate was taken over in order to partly straighten the highway near the bridge and the county commissioners awarded the estate $200 in their decree. This was considered a low figure by both the estate and town and at a special town meeting held last June it was voted to appoint a committee to recommend just what the town would pay and report at the next annual town meeting.

STARLIGHT GIRLS

A very pretty dancing party was held at Lincoln hall Friday evening by the Starlight Girls. There were about 500 present. The officers were: General manager, Genevieve Paul; assistant manager, Catherine Lamb; floor director, Gertrude Corkery; assistant floor director, Mary McLaughlin.

FORMER LOWELL PASTOR DEAD

Rev. George E. Martin, D.D., who for seven years was pastor of the Kirk Street church of this city, died yesterday at Fairhaven as a result of a shock he received while preaching a sermon at the Fairhaven Congregational church Sunday. Deceased was 68 years and 10 months of age. He had served as pastor in Lowell, Brattleboro, Vt., Brockton, St. Louis and Philadelphia. The funeral will take place from his home in Auburndale, Thursday afternoon.

BURIED WRONG MAN

PORTSMOUTH, O.—Mrs. George Willis thinks someone else should pay the funeral expenses of a man she buried under the impression it was her husband. She identified the mutilated body of a man found along the railroad tracks as her husband who had disappeared several weeks previous. Now the husband, who had been working in the northern part of the state, has returned home, denying and proving he's not dead. Mrs. Willis is wondering whose husband she buried.

TRIUMPH OF THE REDS

The disaster to General Wrangel in his gallant fight against the Bolsheviks is only what was to be expected. Without resources and with great inferiority in numbers, he could not possibly hold out against the hosts of the Bolsheviks who, since the signing of the armistice with Poland, have concentrated their efforts to crush his forces.

The allies may as well now conclude that they will have to deal with a soviet Russia. If Russia were at peace the people would have an opportunity of judging of the shortcomings of the soviet system. The leaders have practically nationalized everything; but since assuming control, they have been continually at war. It will require a period of peace to demonstrate beyond a doubt the radical defects of their system of government. It is perhaps better, therefore, that Bolshevikism be given an unrestricted opportunity to demonstrate the falsity of its claims to superiority.

The question now uppermost in the minds of the allied nations and others is, whether the Reds will stop their warfare, whether they will be satisfied with holding Russia intact or whether they will endeavor to push their campaign into other lands in which they have been trying to secure a following through propaganda. Even in the United States they have followers who distribute their literature and if they can exert their influence here, it may be assumed that they have been much more successful in their missionary work in the nations along the Russian borders.

The Red menace is apparently in Europe to stay until it either falls through the inherent defects of the Russian system or is crushed by a combination of the other powers. Should the rest of the world return to peaceful conditions and the bloody regime of Bolshevikism be maintained in Russia, the time would come when in the interests of civilization and humanity the other great powers would have to combine to restore peace under civilized government in Russia. Whether Russia will menace the world same as did Germany, will depend on future developments.

ENFORCE THE LAW

Drunkness is becoming so common on the streets and in other public places that there is a general demand for a strict enforcement of the prohibitory law.

It is rather strange that the police go on arresting so many people for drunkenness without finding out where they get the liquor, whether they buy it in the saloons, from bootleggers, in the back alleys or from the manufacturers of "moonshine." This, it seems, should be an easy task for police officials if they really desired to know.

If reports now current are true, the law is violated at numerous points throughout the city under the nose of the police, so that the belief prevails that most of the police officers are cognizant, if not familiar, with existing conditions, and the wonder is that they do not take effective measures to stop the traffic. We understand that some officers who find the liquor law violated quite openly on their respective beats ignore the fact as if it were none of their business.

It might be well to ask why the police department does not enforce this law as strictly as any other.

Is it an understood thing that the department is not to meddle with those who violate the law in a quiet way? Supt. Welch is at the head of the department and the citizens are wondering why he does not enforce the prohibition law. Are his "hands tied"?

Why allow itinerant and other vendors to fleece the people and spread demoralization by dispensing liquor at extortionate prices or at any price?

Evidence appears daily in the courts and elsewhere that there is a very serious relapse to the liquor habit by men who would put their money to better use but for the facility with which they can purchase drink. It is time to stop the practice and unless conditions are speedily improved the Sun will proceed to show that liquor is sold here with as much freedom almost as when the business was legalized.

ARE WE PROTECTED?

Six children died in a needless panic caused by a smoking furnace in a small picture theatre in the East Side of New York city.

When the smoke appeared in the body of the theatre, somebody shouted "Fire" and that was the signal for a rush to the exits in which six little ones were trampled to death and many others badly injured.

What happened in that little theatre is liable to happen in almost any small picture house in which, by accident or otherwise, any sign of fire appears.

There have been so many fire horrors in theatres that the people are easily frightened on the slightest sign of fire. Here in Lowell we have too many small picture houses competing for business. There seems to be an impression that anybody who wishes to enter the picture business has nothing to do but to secure the building and the outfit. It is chiefly in the smaller houses that the greatest danger is found in case of a panic.

It would be well for the officials of the fire department to keep a close watch on these places in order to see that the requirements of the law in regard to fire prevention are fully carried out.

It is important that a police officer or fireman should be on hand at every performance in order to protect the lives of the people in case of emergency. Unless we are mistaken, the entrance to one or two of the Lowell picture houses is such that in a rush outward, the danger of loss of life would be very great. Those who have regard for safety first will avoid the pokey houses in which the fire hazards are above the average.

THE CITY ELECTION

Next week the voters of Lowell will be called upon to select candidates to fill two vacancies on the municipal council and three on the school board. There are fourteen aspirants for commissioner and twelve for the school board. Looking over the list of candidates they do not seem to be above the average standing of the men who seek such positions.

The voters will have to find out from reliable sources who these men are and from the number pick four to go on the ballot for commissioner and six for school board. While the primary ballot will have twice as many candidates as there are places to be filled on election day, in the primaries no citizen can vote for more than two candidates for commissioner and three for school committee.

In this municipal election, the women will vote for commissioner for the first time and it is expected they will show better judgment than the men in rejecting the undeserving, the incompetent and the dishonest.

THE GREAT REMEDY

In the application of the golden rule to business, Mr. Arthur Nash of Cincinnati has made a great success of his tailoring factory without any unions or other organizations to interfere with him in carrying on his plans.

His address at the Grace Universalist church Sunday was highly interesting and instructive as showing the result of a real desire to be fair and of the application of Christian principles to business problems.

There can be no doubt that this alone offers a proper solution of all the differences existing between capital and labor, employer and employed in this country.

WOMAN IN CONGRESS

From all accounts, Miss Alice Robertson of Oklahoma, the lone woman of congress, will be an improvement upon Miss Rankin. Miss Robertson is older in years and has many idiosyncracies, if one is to believe the newspaper stories. But one thing appears to be unquestioned in regard to Miss Robertson. Nobody questions her sound common sense or her force of will in standing for what she believes to be right. Her influence in congress will doubtless be exerted in favor of justice and humanity, even though she is a republican.

PHOTOGRAPHS BY WIRE

The transmission of photographs by telegraph is another step forward in the wonders of electricity. This feat has already been performed in London and its first trial in this country has just been conducted by the New York World and St. Louis Post Dispatch. This is fully as wonderful as the photograph, the wireless telephone and other modern inventions which have achieved what was hitherto supposed to be impossible.

Oh, for an army of men of the type of the Light Brigade to ride "onward, right onward, into the valley of death" in the Crimea once more against the red hordes of the Bolsheviks.

Looking at the list of aspirants for places in the municipal council, we can perhaps take courage that the darkest hour may come just before the dawn of the new charter.

When we look at the long list of candidates for municipal office we feel like commending the women for the shining example they have set in keeping out of the scramble.

Not Very Womanly

A smartly dressed woman who visited a store to make several purchases noticed that as one salesman passed her on to another this remark was made in a stage whisper:

"Two-ten."

She was struck by the oft-repeated remark, and finally said:

"What does two-ten mean?"

"It's nothing," replied the man, "just a pass word."

But she was not satisfied. So when the next salesman brought her purchases home she said to him:

"Evy, would you like to earn a quarter?"

"You bet, miss," was the reply.

"Tell me what does two-ten mean and I'll give you the money."

"That's easy," replied the youngster. "It means keep your two eyes on her 10 fingers."

She had been taken for a shoplifter.—Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

As It Ought to Be

(Copyright, 1920, N.E.A.)

Now, football as it ought to be, is not as it was taught to me, for when the captain cries his call And makes obeisance to the ball, He ought to use a lucid English Which anybody might distinguish.

But / does he do so? Does he? Nay!

The figures of his speech betray Direct intent, not I believe, Well calculated to deceive. (Two seventy-five, thirteen, eleven, Ten off for cash, plus fifty-seven) Which surely, as we all are sensible, Is nothing less than reprehensible.

And when the runner has the ball, He's almost sure to have a fall, A fall provoked to some extent By rival jabs, on mischief bent. Truly such conduct, coarse and rude, Excites a deep solicitude.

Let strife for physical ability Affect their natural gentility.

Better by far it were, I say, To cheer the runner on his way And all his rivals, in succession, Applaud his metrical progression.

Let, in the conflict of their banners, They lose their modesty of manners.

Football, if I conceive it rightly, Might be improved and played politely. I'm very sure some rule is needed, That runners should not be impeded.

For, if they are, 'tis my contention, 'Tis almost sure to cause dissension, Which mars that fair, serene urbanity The game should foster in humanity.

Let, then, each greeting and response Be ever "After you, Alphonse!" And football be the crown and chime Symbolic of Man's altruism!

—Edmund Vance Cooke.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

Did you know that the Smith family sent a larger representation to the world war than any other one family? According to figures issued by the bureau of war risk insurance at Washington in a most interesting booklet which has come into the hands of a number of local ex-service men, 51,930 men named Smith applied for war risk insurance during the war. The Brown family was next with a representation of 11,000. The Williams sent 17,000 members, the Jones, 25,050, the Andersons, 22,000, the Walkers, 19,500, and the Millers, 25,000. There were 310 Willie Smiths and of 52 John O'Briens 14 made their allotments to wives named Mary.

The longest name on record in the files of the insurance bureau is that of Harry Adolph Thomas Richard Eugene Bullock. The booklet is also replete with interesting statistics concerning the part played by various countries in the great conflict. For instance, the grand total number of those who were killed or died of wounds in the war was 7,155,000 of which 50,322 came from the United States. Russia suffered the greatest loss and Germany, France and England were next in the order named. British ships carried more Americans abroad than those of any other country, according to the booklet. Forty-nine per cent, or 1,927,500 American soldiers were carried overseas to British vessels. The United States carried 48 per cent, of her own Italian ships three per cent, French ships one per cent, and Russian ships one per cent. England lost 1,757,000 gross tons of shipping during the war while this country's losses totaled 355,000. Massachusetts made a comparatively poor showing in the number of her men who were physically fit for the draft. Only 54 men out of each 100 examined passed. The middle western states made the best showing in this respect. Members of the 10th Division will be interested to know that their own regiment made 100 per cent, of the grade. No other division except the first and second. The 10th Division was five months in active battle service and was 10 months on French soil before entering the line.

Was So Nervous He Had to Quit Work

Connecticut Man Was Near Breakdown When He Learned of Remedy That Helped Him

Loss of health often means loss of income. If you would save yourself from a possible breakdown and save those dependent upon you from suffering, guard your health. A tendency to catch cold easily, palpitation of the heart and shortness of breath after slight effort, weakness, chills, sleeplessness and nervousness are all warnings of this blood. If you have these symptoms do not delay any longer but begin treatment with the tonic which Mr. Joseph Landry of No. 35 Grand street, Hartford, Conn., so strongly recommends.

"I had been in poor health for several months," says Mr. Landry. "I became so nervous that I could not sit still five minutes at a time and I had spells of nervousness that were so severe that I would have to give up my work and go home to bed. My sleep was broken and unrestful and I had severe headaches and pains in my back. My strength seemed to be leaving me and I became worried.

"I read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and got a box. About a week after I began to take the pills I felt a little better and I was so encouraged that I kept on. Nothing has ever helped me as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did. My nerves became stronger, the headaches and pain in my back disappeared and I sleep well. I feel better in every way now and no longer lose time from my work."

The free booklet, "Diseases of the Nervous System," will interest you. Write for it today to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or they will be sent by mail on receipt of price, 50 cents per box.—Adv.

WENT TO GROTON

Ladies' Auxiliary of Local Post of the American Legion Entertained Soldiers at Groton Hospital

When about 30 members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the local post of the American Legion visited the Groton hospital Sunday afternoon to entertain the soldiers now convalescent there, the following program was carried out: Singing, "Just Like a Guy," Miss Sadie Sherrill; for dance, Miss Anna Laughlin; songs and dances, the Beware Sisters; dance, Miss Catherine Boyle; song, Frank Conner; song, Miss Florence; song, Miss Conner; and readings, Miss Peggy O'Reilly, original songs and sketches, the Dion sisters; violin solos, Miss Marion Curran; Miss Rita Carroll was the accompanist for the occasion. Mrs. David Braxley was very helpful in securing the loan of 15 automobiles to the trip to the hospital. Mrs. William H. Merritt, president of the women's auxiliary was chaperon for the party.

WENT OVER DUMP

Two horses being used by Contractor White in connection with the excavation work on the Rogers Hall school lot in Belvidere, narrowly escaped serious injury Saturday noon, when attached to a dump wagon they fell backward over a 25-foot embankment on the high street extension side of Fort Hill park. The driver of the horses had the wagon backed up to the edge of the embankment where the clay taken from the school lot is dumped, but by accident backed it too far. The weight of the loaded wagon pulled the horses over the dump and pinned them beneath it at the bottom. It took some time to disentangle the horses from the wagon and harness, but aside from a few scratches they were unharmed.

NOT A BIG SUCCESS

The tag day for the benefit of the Marathon Social and Athletic club conducted in this city Saturday was not as successful as anticipated. The sum of $300 was collected through public subscriptions, while the drive was for $500. There were 51 young women selling tags on the principal streets of the city, but because of the cold weather and the employment conditions in the local mills they did not meet with any great success. Miss Alice Morras collected $27, the largest amount received by any single collector.

RIDING TO HEALTH ON SADDLE

The automobile asserts a promise of health and physical strength is to be found in the saddle," he insists.

"Horseback riding provides not only muscular tone but internal massage and stimulation of the vital organs."

The association is holding the saddle in cities, campaigning for better paths and a return of the old-fashioned livery stable to make it possible for the man who cannot keep his horse in his backyard to be able to get an occasional horseback ride.

Children especially are urged to get into the saddle. The association fears that unless the young people are made acquainted with the horse the coming generation will be afraid to get into the saddle.

TO RESUME TRADE WITH RUSSIA

LONDON, Nov. 15.—Representatives of the Russian trade delegation in London, headed by Leonid Krassin, were in conference yesterday with the cabinet, discussing preliminaries for the possible resumption of trade with soviet Russia.

Some progress was made, but it is stated there is a sharp division of opinion in the cabinet on the subject. Premier Lloyd George is reported to favor resumption, but several prominent cabinet members oppose it.

Lloyd George is said to be supported among others, by Andrew Bonar Law, government leader in the house of commons and Sir Robert S. Horne, president of the board of trade, who heretofore had opposed the recognition policy.

The difficulty of the situation is made greater by the attitude of France where general public opinion is regarded as against any resumption at present. It is stated that Great Britain will not resume trade with the soviet without the consent of the French cabinet, which has been informed of yesterday's proceedings and requested to comment upon them.

SEEK TO SETTLE WAGE DISPUTE

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 15.—Representatives of the anthracite miners and operators resumed conferences here today in another effort to reach a settlement of their wage dispute.

When the conference adjourned on Nov. 14, it virtually was deadlocked.

Should no agreement be reached today, miners' representatives said they probably would appeal to President Wilson.

Among the men's demands are: Increases equal to the 27 per cent granted bituminous miners, a 48 minimum day rate and a universal 8-hour day.

WHITNEY GIVEN YEAR FOR FORGERY

NEWPORT, N. H., Nov. 15.—William B. Whitney of Langdon, who was arrested at Richmond, Me., on a charge of forging a check, was sentenced to imprisonment for not less than a year and a day nor more than two years, in superior court here late yesterday by Judge Marble. Whitney pleaded guilty of forging a check of the town of Langdon from $155 to $258.

"SOUVENIR" TAYLOR DEAD
HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 15.—William Harrison Taylor, known throughout the state as "Souvenir" Taylor, died suddenly at his home last night of heart disease. He was born in 1872, the 48th year of his life. He was a newspaperman for a number of years and then became a successful political solicitor.

Heals Running Sores and Conquers Piles

Also Stops All Itching of Eczema Almost Immediately

"I felt it my duty to write you a letter of thanks for your wonderful Peterson's Ointment. I had a running sore on my left leg for one year. I began to use Peterson's Ointment three weeks ago and now it is healed. A. C. Gilbreath, 104 Reed Street, Erie, Pa. I'd rather get a letter like that, says Peterson of Buffalo, than have John D. Rockefeller give me a thousand dollars. It does me a lot of good to be able to be of use to my fellow man. For years I have been selling through agents a large box of PETERSON'S OINTMENT for 25 cents. The healing power in this ointment is marvelous. Eczema goes in a few days. Old sores heal up like magic. Piles that other remedies do not seem to even relieve are speedily conquered. It stops itching in five minutes and for sores and burns it is simply wonderful. ADRIATIC SETTLEMENT

Great Britain, France and U. S. Express Satisfaction With Result

ROME, Nov. 16.—Great Britain, France and the United States, through their ambassadors, have expressed satisfaction with the settlement of the Adriatic question reached at Rapallo, Italy, last week. Premier Giolitti of Italy, announced at a cabinet meeting yesterday, says a statement issued by the Stefani News Agency, a semi-official organization.

LADIES NIGHT—NIT!

Wrong Notice Stirs Fish and Game Club

It is stated in the local morning paper that the Lowell Fish and Game Association will hold ladies' night in the Odd Fellows building this evening. President Harris says that the Lowell Fish and Game Association is not having any sort of entertainment this evening. "I do not know," he said, "where the morning paper got its news, but it is wrong and I'm afraid that a considerable number of people will be disappointed. The association is not having any sort of entertainment this evening. We held a ladies' night early in the present month and it is not going to be repeated tonight."

Teacher Of "New Thought" Healed By Fruit Liver Tablets

SCHEENSTADT, N. Y. "I am not in the habit of praising any material medicine as I am an advocate of 'New Thought'; but some time ago, I had such a bad attack of Liver and Stomach Trouble that I gave up thinking I did not have it and took 'Fruit-a-tives' or Fruit Liver Tablets. Most gratifying was the result. It relieved my liver and stomach trouble, cleaned up my yellowish complexion and put new blood in my body. 'Fruit-a-tives' is the highest result of 'New Thought' in medicine."

TALK OF PEACE IN IRELAND

LONDON, Nov. 16.—According to the Daily Mail's Dublin correspondent, there is again talk of peace conciliation in Ireland.

He declares that the power of the Sinn Féin extremists is broken and that extreme Sinn Féin is no longer popular; that the moderates are again being listened to and that the country is ripe for a settlement.

May Home Rule Rejection LONDON, Nov. 16.—The Irish home rule bill passed its first reading in the house of lords yesterday, Nov. 23 has been fixed for the second reading of the bill, when its rejection will be moved by Lord Dunsany.

Storm Warning Is Issued

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The weather bureau here today issued the following storm warning: "Northeast storm warning, 9.30 a. m. Cape May, N. J., to Eastport, Me. Southern storm increasing rapidly in intensity and moving northward; increasing northeast winds becoming gales with rain and probably snow off New England and Middle Atlantic coast. Dangerous for all shipping."

HUERTA TO HEAD OBREGON CABINET

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 15.—Adolfo de la Huerta, provisional president of Mexico, will head the cabinet of Gen. Alvaro Obregon when the latter assumes the presidency on Dec. 1, says the Excelsior. Alberto J. Pani, the newspaper says, will be named secretary of the treasury and Gen. P. Elias Calles will succeed himself as secretary of war.

WOMEN TAKE ACTION

Plan to Create Sentiment in Favor of Bill Providing for Proper Care of Mothers and New-Born Babies

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Plans for creating public sentiment in favor of a bill to be submitted to the next session of congress providing for the proper care of mothers and new-born babies today occupied the attention of 200 women delegates to the first conference of the second region of the National League of Women Voters, which will close with a dinner this evening. Mrs. Maud Wood Park, chairman of the league, said at least 20,000 mothers and babies die every month for want of proper care.

A conference of women has been called to meet next Monday in Washington to discuss methods of promoting the bill.

Two U. S. Warships Will Participate—Argentine to Send Battleship Rivadavia

VALPARAISO, Chile, Nov. 15.—Two United States warships, the Des Moines and Dolphin in command of Rear Admiral Henry F. Bryan, have arrived here en route to Punta Arenas, where they will participate in the Magellan celebration.

BUENOS AIRES, Nov. 15.—Argentina will send the battleship Rivadavia to Chile to participate in the Magellan celebration.

SENDS DOCTOR TO JAIL

COVINGTON, Ky.—Judge Lewis L. Mansson, Covington police judge, is a respecter of persons in his court. When Dr. F. T. Adams, widely known physician, was arrested on charge of speeding, Mansson fined him $30 and costs and sentenced him to jail for three days. "You and I are friends. I am your lawyer and you are my doctor," Judge Mansson said, "but it does not matter to me in this court. I am here to administer justice as I see it. And you will serve that jail sentence in spite of our friendship or what any of our friends may do."

"MAMMA'S BOY" RE-ELECTED

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.—They told Harry Burn, member of the legislature, he'd not be returned because he voted for the woman's suffrage bill. Burn was called "mamma's boy" because when he cast the 11th-hour vote for the bill which gave millions of women the right to vote, he admitted he had voted for the bill because his mother had written him to do so. But he was re-elected! Burn at the time said: "A boy can't go wrong if he listens to his mother."

BIRD'S-EYE VIEW

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—M. W. Todd was trying doors in the sixth floor of the Baltimore here when House Detective Alex Johnson discovered him. "What do you?" Inquired Johnson, politely, at the same time grabbing Todd by the neck. "Good afternoon," responded Todd, biting Johnson's wrist. "I'm looking for a bird's-eye view of your town." A judge offered to let Todd enrich the public treasury by $200 if he was in town the next day.

BETTY AND HER BEAU

WORRY AND WRINKLES

A woman's nerves are more truly the cause of worry than outside troubles. The nerves are to a woman's body the telegraph system which surely warns her of any trouble in the feminine make-up. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the ideal woman's tonic for such conditions. When a woman complains of backache, dizziness or pain—when everything looks black before her eyes—a dragging feeling, with nervousness, she should turn to this "temperance" herbal tonic. It can be obtained in almost every drug store in the land. Put up in tablets or liquid.

BUFFALO, N. Y.—"I certainly am pleased to testify for, and recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. After taking a few bottles I feel better than I have for years. I know of no other medicine on the market today that is so good for nervousness and feminine weakness. I shall never cease in recommending the 'Favorite Prescription' to my friends."—MABEL BROCK, Care of 42 Choat Street.

Smile 1¢ A DOSE

Not if you are feeling two-thirds sick. Few of us can look happy or be decently agreeable when suffering from headache or any kind of indigestion, or even a simple cold. But you WILL feel like smiling all the time after a few days' treatment with the "L. P." Atwood Medicine, for its first action is to expel the "blues" which usually result from a clogged or bilious condition. Its cleansing process extends to the blood; there's no better blood purifier. Soon you'll feel stronger, eat better, sleep sounder. And then you'll smile without effort and wonder why you never tried this "Good-health" remedy before. Get a 5¢ cent bottle today. It's economical—60 doses—and always waiting to aid you. Sold everywhere. Satisfaction assured by The "L. P." Medicine Co., Portland, Me.

ST. MARGARET'S REUNION THURSDAY

The eighth annual reunion of St. Margaret's parish will be held in Association hall on Thursday, evening, and an elaborate program has been arranged. During the past few weeks committees have been busy on plans for the affair and nothing has been left undone to make this year's party one of the most successful in the history of the parish.

A concert program, in which will appear some of Lowell's leading talent, will be held from 8 to 9 o'clock. A feature will be the singing of some of the favorite compositions of other days. Of course many of the later day numbers will also be given.

The general dancing will start at 9 o'clock and continue until midnight. The dance order is a well diversified one and will include several of the old-time dances.

Rev. Charles J. Galligan, pastor, and Rev. Stephen Murray, assistant, have worked untiringly on the arrangements and they have been ably assisted by efficient committees. Miss Julia T.

Lanen is general manager of the party, with John P. Roane, Jr., floor director, Joseph Maguire, assistant, Mrs. D. J. Cooney, chairman of the ladies' committee, and Hon. James B. Casey, chairman of the men's committee.

OLDEST GREEK WOMAN DIED THIS MORNING

Evelia Dimitroopoulos, aged 100 years, died this morning at her home, 20 No. Franklin court. She is survived by one son and one daughter and several grandchildren. Deceased was the oldest Greek woman in Lowell and possibly the oldest woman of any nationality in this city.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

H. F. KELVIN'S THEATRE
A real wizard xylophonist, Alexander, the gentleman who heads off this week's bill at H. F. Kelvin's theatre, and the only fact that last evening's audience had to find with him was that he didn't give enough. A headliner is usually expected to offer a more or less generous repertoire, but if memory serves, Alexander played only two numbers. Those were excellent, perhaps the best xylophone selections that have been heard here in months.

Alexander opens his act in a rather unexpected manner. There's a whole lot of comedy in it and for a minute or two one doesn't realize who the real Alexander is. Stage properties are flying about at a whirlwind pace and for a time the act seems to be starting off very unfortunately. Eventually, however, things are straightened out and Alexander begins to bang away at his instrument. From then on he has his audience with him every minute and at the end of the act he is a blushing bride, married but a few hours, how would you like somebody to tell you that your husband had been married four times before, had eight or nine children and was a crack up professor? There's the situation that "Peggy Moore" faces in the mystery farce, "Peggy's Wedding Night," presented by Jean Chase & Co. "Peggy" becomes so frightened that she won't allow her better half within a quarter of a mile of her, much to his consternation and surprise. However, it finally appears that a couple of practical jokes have been trying to get even for a joke which "Peggy's" husband played on them when they were married and matters turn out happily. But in the meantime, there's a whole lot of fun for the audience. Jean Chase makes a very fascinating "Peggy" and her supporting company is excellent.

Ed Morton was scheduled for appearance on this week's bill but den illness has made it impossible for him to perform. In his place Manager Pickett has secured one of the best acts of his kind which has appeared here in some time. White and Abe Frank are the substitutes and they went over with a snap last evening. Elsie sings well, has plenty of pep and wears a very attractive and excellent costume. Her excellent and Frank is an able accompanist. One can't help liking this couple.

Marguerite Kohn and Fred Galletti present a novelty comedy surprise in which dancing, a lot of comedy and a bit of real "monkey business" are introduced. Carroll & Sturgess are two girls who play the piano and violin entertainingly while the Anderson sisters are dancers who do all their costume changing in plain view of the audience. Harry Bender and Barney Heer are two well known comedians who open the bill in a peppy fashion with their strength demonstrations. A comedy, Topics of the Day and Kinogram News Weekly are the motion picture features and, as usual, are most enjoyable.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE
There are two shows on the stage for the price of one at the Lowell Opera House this week. One is a style show of "gorgeous gowns" and "heavenly hats" to use the alliterative descriptive terms of the play bill, and the comedy drama, entitled "Lombardi, Ltd." The material for this style show is provided by two of the leading shops of the city. There are frills, furs and furbelows and hats that are visions of loveliness. The play is given by the Lowell players in their usual excellence of action and evidence of sincere desire to please. "Lombardi, Ltd." is the work of Fred and Fanny Blanton. In writing it they took a male member of feminine wearing apparel and wore around him a series of incidents that have the material for comedy in them. There are the elements in the plot that are so popular nowadays of chorus girls and a rounder of immense wealth whose pastime is the luring of susceptible young women within his web. Lombardi, the dressmaking artist, gets his solar plexus blow when one of the fair maidens whom he adores with a pure and inspiring passion, deserts him for the adored rounder. The members of the company, without exception, are of the Lowell players. The parts that have been assigned to them. The play is not an easy one to act and players of less skill and training than the Lowell Players might have made much less of it. Milton Byron, as Tito Lombardi, carries the burden of the acting. He has a dozen lines for every one that is allotted to the other members of the cast. His work is a finished piece of acting. Marguerite Pinks, as Nora Blake, Lombardi's assistant, gives a well thought out and finished portrayal of the neglected woman who has to live with a man who has a man's heart, as well as a man's body. Doris Weeks, as Muriel, a manipulative, who has starved herself to retain her curves as an asset of the business, makes a pretty picture. Florence Hill, as Daisy, another manipulative, is, as usual, brisk, vivacious and altogether delightful.

DOWS—TWO DRUG STORES

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE
The show of the double feature at Merrimack Square theatre for the first part of the week, one which is bound to please motion picture fans of all varieties of taste. Wallace Reid in "Always" is an adaptation from Ben Ames Williams' noted story "Toujours de l'Audace," which appeared recently in the Saturday Evening Post, and H. H. Warner in "Felix O'Day," an intensely interesting story of the adventures of a young Irishman, are the outstanding attractions.

In his latest starring vehicle Wallace Reid portrays the strongest and most virile role, or rather, two roles, he has ever attempted. This is not a part in which Mr. Reid is seen as himself and his twin, but he plays both the hero and the heavy, the latter being a crook who has been the victim of his twin while he assumes the place of his wealthy victim in society.

In the course of the development of the remarkable story the star actually battles with himself, a wonderful photographic feat, possible only by the double exposure method, but so skillfully done as to make every beholder believe in the reality of the feat. There is romance galore in the story and it is of that gripping quality which is bound to hold the attention of audiences to the very finish.

Mr. Reid is ably supported by Margaret Louisa, the charming co-star, and the production as a whole should please immensely. "Felix O'Day" is an adaptation of the novel of the same name by H. H. Warner, and is a story of the adventures of a young Irishman, who has been the victim of his twin while he assumes the place of his wealthy victim in society.

RIALTO THEATRE
A portrayal of Helen Keller's life and her triumph over the blindness of darkness comes to the Rialto theatre yesterday afternoon in the showing of the "eighth wonder of the world" in "Deliverance." It is a true story of the life of the famous woman, from childhood to womanhood, with the various stages of her progress depicted by children and girls of various ages. In the closing chapter, Miss Keller, as she is today, is seen and this feature gives the true aspect to the early chapters and give proof of the star's claims of Miss Keller's early life. In addition to the picture, "Deliverance," the Rialto also showed Robert Bostworth and Anna Q. Nilsson in "The Brute Master," an appealing story of South Sea life, a Hank Mann comedy, "Way Out West," the last episode of "The Third Eye," and the Fox news. The entire program has unusual drawing power and excels any that the Rialto has shown for months.

In addition to Miss Keller's appearance the picture "Deliverance" also introduces Mrs. Anne Sullivan (Macy) who has been a life long companion to the famous woman. It is well known that the power of speech and blindness. Without her Miss Keller would undoubtedly have grown up in the darkness of the living world and would not have attained the high social and educational attainments that she has today.

The picture "Deliverance," the name of which is suggestive of the truth of the story, opens in Tuscombia, Ala. Miss Keller gives up the death of her loving parents at her early childhood. Then comes a dreaded sickness which left the child blind and deaf and without the power of speech. Doctors said the senses would never develop. Little Anna Ross depicts the life of the early Helen Keller. And then the child grew up. She was the trouble of the entire neighborhood, fighting, clawing and kicking as a being without sense and reason until one day Anne Sullivan (Macy) came.

HELPLESS WITH RHEUMATISM

Not an Ache or Pain Now

Another remarkable recovery from chronic Rheumatism of the joints and muscles is that of our local townsman, Mr. W. H. Seroggs. Mr. Seroggs says: "After all that Neutrone Prescription 99 has done for me, I feel the facts should be known to the public in order that other sufferers may take heart and try Neutrone Prescription 99."

"While working for Dodge Bros. Detroit, I suddenly became all crippled up with rheumatism. It started

Claims Prescription 99 Cured Me

"It seemed just like a miracle. Aches and pains disappeared; swellings went down and my twisted hands and feet straightened as if by magic. After three bottles I was practically cured, but I used two more to entirely rid my system of the disease."

"Two weeks after I commenced to take "Neutrone-Preseptin 99", I started to work as a machinist, and have been working steadily ever since, and my health was never so good.

POLO NOTES

Big Fred Jean and his Fall River Tiger team played Lowell at the Crescent rink tonight.

Many of the fans who attended the game tonight in the old days when Jean and Bob Hart, captain of the Lowell team, were pals will be on hand tonight to see the veterans perform.

Another of the stars of those days, Barney Doherty, is still in the harness and his backtracking this season "just about as good as it ever was."

Frank Hardy, who is filled the week link in the Lowell club and who is playing great polo, is expected to take good care of the Tiger offense men tonight.

Bill Blount, who is leading the league goal tenders, will be in his usual place in front of the cage for Fall River tonight. He's a great goal guard, and Lowell will be expected to take good care of him out for them.

Alexander, who recently joined Fall River, will make his first local appearance tonight in a Tiger uniform. He is coming up with Pellet, and the pair playing before the Jean are setting a lively pace.

POLLARD COMPANY BOWLING LEAGUE

The A. G. Pollard Company Bowling League rolled their contests on the Merrimack alleys last night with a goodly number of spectators on hand. Team 1 took four points from Team 2; Team 2 took four points from Team 3; Team 3 took four points from Team 4; Team 4 took four points from Team 5. The highest three-string total was 253 by J. Lebrun with J. Finerty, J. Christen, and Lowell. The highest single was 111 by J. Finerty of Team 3; the highest team single was 443 by Team 1. The summary:

Team 1—J. Finerty 235, E. Landry 261, A. Bannon 225, Sub 245, R. Monier 258; totals 1266.

FRUZZETTI DEFEATS
FRANKIE BRITT

WOSTON, Nov. 16.—Jimmy Fruzzetti of Brockton won the decision over Frankie Britt of New Bedford in their 10-round bout at the Carlysle A. C. last night.

For six rounds the New Bedford boy ruled 100 to 35 shot, but after that Fruzzetti came along fast. When the last round started he was the favorite. A packed house enjoyed the bout.

Britt, as usual, did most of his fighting at close range. He ran into some stiff left jabs, but when he did get close to the Brockton fighter he banged him with lefts and rights. In several of the rounds he caught Fruzzetti flush on the jaw.

After the sixth, Fruzzetti used a left to the face and a right to the body continually.

SPORTING PROMOTERS COMBINE INTERESTS

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Tex Rickard, Charles Cochran of London and William A. Brady, co-promoters of the Dempsey-Carpenter championship boxing contest, have combined their interests in staging bouts in this country. It was learned tonight through the granting of a charter at Albany yesterday to the "Dempsey-Carpenter Contest Co."

When promoters are the only directors of the corporation, which will hold contests under the name of "The American Sporting Club," Cochran will look after the European interests of the corporation in inducing foreign pugilists to come to this country.

NOT TO RENEW OFFER FOR HORNSBY

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Manager John J. McGraw of the New York Giants, indicated today that the reported offer of $200,000 for Roger Hornsby, hard hitter of the St. Louis Cardinals, made last season, would not be repeated. "It isn't our policy to keep driving after a man in a club to break up another owner's ball club," he said.

McGraw said he had signed a number of youngsters to be tried out at second base during spring training. "If none of these comes through," he said, "we may have to make some kind of a deal."

CATHOLIC BOWLING LEAGUE

In the Catholic Bowling league contests last night the Burkes took four points from the K. of C. and the Matthews of Billerica took four from the K. of C. The highest team single was 524 by the Burkes; the highest single, 124, by Luter of the Matthews; the highest three-string total, 1328, by Lane of the Burkes. The summary:

K. of C.—Lang 256, Murphy 277, Mahan 253, Donahue 254, Coughlin 258; totals 1397.

SOCCER FOOTBALL NOTES

The Massachusetts Mohair Plush Company soccer football club held a meeting at the Y.M.C.A. last Sunday that was largely attended. John Mahon was elected president; John Kennedy, treasurer; William Mitchell, secretary; and John Campbell, vice president. Board of Directors: Whitley, R. Patterson, F. Swindell, G. Clegg, W. Brown. Auditors: G. Turnbull, A. Robinson, W. Brown.

The dance committee reports a large sale of tickets for the dance which will be held on December 17 at the Merrimack Gardens. Uniforms are ordered and will be ready for the game to be played on the South common Sunday.

TO MEET HARVARD ON SAT.

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Nov. 16.—A meet with Harvard is on the 1921 wrestling schedule of Pennsylvania State college, announced today. Pennsylvania State has won the Interstate title for three consecutive years. Harvard's wrestlers will come here February 13.

OFFER KILBANE $1500

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 15.—Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion, has been offered $1,500 to appear here in a 16-round bout to a decision with the winner of the Danny Frush-Joe Leonard contest here next Friday night.

JESSE POMEROY

Noted "Lifer" Enjoyed Mr. Rogers' Talk and Wants Congressman to Have Copy of His Book

Congressman John Jacob Rogers of this city entertained the prisoners of the Massachusetts state prison at Charlestown with an address last Sunday afternoon. The congressman spoke on "Affairs at Washington" and his address was highly appreciated.

Among those who listened to the talk was Jesse H. Pomeroi, the noted prisoner, who has been confined within the walls of the state prison for over 15 years and who voices his appreciation of the congressman's visit in the following letter, which was sent to the warden of the prison, a copy of which was received by Congressman Rogers this morning:

"I think it a privilege if I can send Congressman Rogers a copy of my book."

Certainly we do not often get the sort of talk he gave us yesterday—a most interesting and characteristic proceeding.

We thank him and hope to see him again.

JESSE H. POMEROI.

Y.M.C.A. BOWLERS

In the Y.M.C.A. league last night the Polles took four points from the White Sox. The highest three-string total was 294 by T. Doyle of the Polles; the highest single string, 114, by T. Doyle also; and the highest team single, 483, by the Polles on their third string. The totals were 1390 and 1232. The summary:

Polles—Babbling 275, Mahoney 276, Shea 253, McCarley 262, T. Doyle 234; totals 1390.

White Sox—Shields 240, Lyons 212, Corrigan 232, Wedge 253, Callahan 253; totals 1232.

WANT TO SEE BATH NUTH

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Many southern towns whose baseball fans are anxious to see Babe Ruth pound out home runs have urged the New York Americans to consider them in the selection of a training camp. The decision is expected to be made a few days later.

Several Texas cities, including Dallas, have sent in requests, besides New Orleans, Hot Springs, Ark., and Jacksonville, Fla.

PENN CAPTAIN OUT FOR SEASON

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 15.—Captain Bud Hopper of the University of Pennsylvania football team, who was injured Saturday in the game with Dartmouth, will not be able to play again this season, according to physicians at the university hospital, where he was taken last Saturday.

Hopper is suffering from a rupture of the blood vessel, and physicians expressed the opinion that he would be unable to play football again this season.

STAR HALFBACK INJURED

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 15.—Harry Eickson, star halfback of the Washington and Jefferson college football team, is in a hospital here suffering from serious injuries sustained in the Pittsburg-W. J. game last Saturday. He was operated on yesterday for a ruptured blood vessel, and physicians expressed the opinion that he would be unable to play football again this season.

THE FLATS' MIDGETS

The Flats' Midgets would like to hear from the Young Giants for a game on the Chambers street playground this Sunday morning at 10:30. The following Flats players are asked to report for practice tonight at the corner of Chambers and Newhall streets: Nelligan, William Gleason, H. Daly, Graham, Powers, Tully and Mouritzson; subs: John Walsh and Joe Walsh. The team also requests Charles Foley to be there, if possible.

RUSH FOR YALE HARVARD TICKETS

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 16.—Tickets for the Yale-Harvard football game were distributed to resident Yale graduates and the student body today. Ahead of these tickets, however, three was a generous supply in spectators' hands offered at private sale.

The Yale News, taking cognizance of complaints over ticket distribution, points out that the ticket bureau's problem was to get 10,000 applicants into 75,000 places, maximum capacity, or in other words "to put four quart into a three quart container."

The News explains the piling process. The Yale News explains the piling process. The Yale News explains the piling process.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 16.—Defeat by Princeton had not lessened the fighting spirit of the Yale undergraduate body, for at a singing and cheering rehearsal of more than 1500 men last night, it was decided to march in a body to the station this afternoon to welcome the team upon its return from White Plains, N. Y.

Last night's "sing" was followed by a torchlight procession led by six marshals. In one practice cheer performed an amplifier was tried out to increase the volume of sound in cheers for Captain Callahan and Coach Jones. An immense banner reading "Beat Harvard" was also carried.

$18,000 Returned

CAMBRIDGE, Nov. 16.—The Harvard University Athletic association today returned $18,000 to unsuccessful applicants for seats in the crimson section of the Yale bowl next Saturday.

The association had received more than 100 requests for 600 seats, more than were available. Approximately one-third of the persons who will see the crimson and blue eleven battle in the bowl will be Harvard men.

These also were placed in the mails today.

Harvard Takes Entire Hotel

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 16.—Every room in Hotel Clark at Derby has been taken for Friday night by the Harvard football management, and here the 45 men will stay. The players will be put in 24 rooms, 24 in all. They will go to Yale field by automobiles at 10 a. m. Saturday. After the game the entire squad will return to Cambridge.

PROPERTY CHANGES HANDS

The property located at the corner of Riverside and Moody streets in Pawtucketville, owned by Reine Verelle, has been sold to Adele Ropelle. regiment were given at least four rounds at target practice and Captain Percy Wilson, formerly of the engineering corps, gave an instructive demonstration of the laying and setting of wire entanglements on a battlefield and also instruction about the layout of trenches and the handling of defensive work against an enemy. The school session was cut short this morning to allow time for the hike. The freshmen assembled in Paige street under the direction of Mr. Donald McIntyre, in charge of physical instruction for the first year, while the members of the regiment gathered in the drill shed for preliminary instruction and talk by Major Kittredge. On the command to march the boys formed in column of squads and started through John

Compulsory Military Training in France

PARIS, Nov. 16.—The French cabinet today approved in principle measures calling for 18 months compulsory military service. The reduction of the term is not to be immediately applicable. It is to become effective after an indeterminate period, the length of which will depend upon the foreign situation and the state of the national defense. Andre Lefevre, the minister of war, indicated his desire to resign when the cabinet opposed his view that the 18 months' term of service should not be considered now. He had favored the two year term. Premier Lefevre, however, advised him to remain.

the court. She seemed to be rather a slight, frail woman. She appeared, however, to stand the cross examination by Attorney Lewis with fortitude. At times her answers gave the impression of being sharp and to the point. They occasionally raised a smile. A few times during the morning she leaned forward on the witness stand and placed her face in her hands, apparently to think. This seemed to be when she thought it necessary to reflect before answering a question.

Miss Puffer On Stand

At the opening of the session of the court Miss Mabel E. Puffer was recalled to the stand. Judge John H. Maloney, counsel for the complainant, offered as evidence statements from savings banks showing the withdrawal of money from the accounts of Miss Puffer.

Miss Puffer told of the withdrawal of her money. She said she gave it to Mr. McKee, the Christian Science practitioner, who was in the likeness of Hazzard. She said McKee, in the likeness of Hazzard, and Hazzard's mother, ruise of McKee, bought an engagement ring for me in Concord, N. H.

"In the Likeness of Hazzard"

Witness said Mr. McKee, in the likeness of Hazzard, and a number of his friends went to Concord.

Witness stated that Hazzard said to her "You've got your man," some time before they went to Concord and she considered they were engaged after that.

The witness throughout her testimony usually spoke of Hazzard as being McKee, or as McKee in the likeness of Hazzard.

The witness said she had been a member of the Christian Science church for three years. She told of hearing with Mrs. Hirsch, a Christian Scientist, in Harvard, after her father "passed on" in 1918. She testified regarding the payment of a board bill to Mrs. Hirsch, and said she had added $500 to the amount on the receipt, after it was signed, at the suggestion of Hazzard. She said she regarded this as a "demonstration."

She told of giving her gold watches, gold pieces and a gold certificate to Hazzard.

The witness told of the alleged "wedding trip" to Concord. She said she went with McKee in the likeness of Arthur Garfield Hazzard. She said that Hazzard first engaged a respectable looking girl for them. Then they went to obtain a marriage license and they tried to find a minister to marry them.

In opening for the defense W. H. Lewis, attorney for the defendants and also defendant, asked Miss Puffer to identify a number of persons in the court room, which she did.

"Who is this man?" asked Mr. Lewis, placing his hand on the shoulder of Mr. Hazzard.

"Arthur Garfield Hazzard," was the reply.

She said that Hazzard had worked for her father.

"Did Mr. McKee work for your father?"

"I don't think he did."

In answer to questions by Mr. Lewis, the witness gave the names of many of her ancestors. She told of graduating from the Ayer high school in 1886, and said that she attended the Emerson School of Oratory and told of giving dramatic readings.

Knew Their Names
She said she knew the names of Hazzard's mother and other members of his family and repeated them.

Witness was shown a statement that she had signed to the effect that she had made a present to Arthur G. Hazzard.

"Is there anything about McKee on that statement?" asked Mr. Lewis.

"Not in a material sense," answered the witness after careful study of the document. She called attention to a receipt dated July 14, 1919, and said the date should have been June 14, 1919, and that she was not permitted to see Hazzard after the trip to Concord.

A receipt for $44, alleged to have been paid to her by Hazzard for her house, was introduced. Witness said in answer to a question as to whether McKee had engaged in the chicken business, that he was engaged "in everything in the world." She said everybody is going to school all the time and that Hazzard's education might be greater than she knew. She said that she did not address Hazzard as McKee.

Mr. Lewis said to witness, "I have been fair to you, haven't I?"

"Yes," was the answer, "but I must wake up."

She spoke of "spiritual control" and "Holy Cross college."

She said she wrote the money receipts as they had been dictated to her by McKee in the person of Hazzard.

"I had no dealings with Arthur Garfield Hazzard," exclaimed the witness with emphasis.

"Did you give any money to this man?" asked Mr. Lewis with his hand on Hazzard's shoulder.

"I did to demonstrate a character," was the answer.

Witness said she had not paid any money to Hazzard for work done around the house, but she had paid it to McKee.

She said that some of the money paid to Hazzard he had spent for groceries "to demonstrate supplies."

She told of giving money to Hazzard to "demonstrate love in the father-mother God."

Hadn't Seen Relatives
The witness said that she had seen little of her blood relatives—those relatives—during 1919. She denied that Hazzard had been at her house frequently but said that McKee had.

The witness said she had given Mrs. Hirsch about $1700. She said she (Miss Puffer) was an only child and that she had inherited all of her father's estate.

The witness said she never talked of marriage with Arthur Garfield Hazzard.

"Did you ever talk of marriage with this man?" asked Mr. Lewis, pointing to Hazzard.

"I never did."

"Who is this man?"

"Arthur Garfield Hazzard."

Witness described her "wedding trip" by trolley and train to Concord, N. H.

"Were you with this man?" asked Mr. Lewis, placing his hand on Hazzard's shoulder.

"No, I was with Mr. McKee, in the likeness of Arthur Garfield Hazzard."

Witness denied emphatically that she had made the trip to Concord with Hazzard. She said that when she gave her age as 19, when a marriage license was applied for, that she told the truth. She said that Hazzard gave his name as Arthur Garfield Hazzard, but that not his name.

She told of talking with members of the Hazzard family and reporters in Concord about her prospective marriage.

"Did you mention McKee?"

"No, it was not necessary for the whole world to know about it."

Witness said she could not remember saying in the police station in Ayer that she was "ready to marry Hazzard if he wanted her."

She gave as a reason for not mentioning McKee that she didn't think it right, "from a spiritual standpoint," to drag him into it. She said it was a "spiritual demonstration of marriage." She said she had discussed the possibility of children with McKee.

She said her friends were willing that she should marry McKee, but that they objected to her marrying him in the likeness of Hazzard.

The witness said that she thought the money mentioned on the receipt given to Mrs. Hirsch might have been Christian Science money, or "spiritual money."

She said that McKee had told her to add the $500 to the Hirsch receipt after it had been signed. She said she did not think this was wrong because "the mind of God's child can reflect no wrong."

In answer to Mr. Lewis' questions the witness admitted that she considered McKee as "her Mr. Galloway," "the man of her dreams" and that she was in love with him.
